Charles Playhouse announces new season

The Charles Playhouse opens its 1965-66 season on November 26, with Moliere's 'Tartuffe.'

The 'Miser' deals with a typical skidrow who meets his downfall who is in the play. All the great plays of world theatre, it is pointed out, are contained in 'The Miser,' and the Moliere is a lesson about materialism.

Following the Moliere, the Playhouse will present, among others, Tennessee Williams' 'A Streetcar Named Desire.' The run is scheduled for the first week of March. This will be followed by a production by the Berkeley Playwrights Workshop, 'The Return of the Prodigal Son,' two weeks later.

The Playhouse will close its 1965-66 season with an original production by Boston Playwrights Company, 'The Shepherdess.'

All shows open on Thursday, 8:30 P.M. except where noted. The box office is open Monday through Saturday, 10:00 A.M. to 9:00 P.M.

The Playhouse is located at 150 Brattle Street, Cambridge, Mass., and is open to all students free of charge with a valid student identification card. Student seats may be reserved by calling the box office, 405-0909.

The box office also sells student seats for all other plays presented by the Playhouse during the season.

Contact the Playhouse box office for a complete list of plays and dates, or for further information on any of the productions.
