Soccermen face top foes

By Bob Slutz

Captain William Morrison, back from a vacation in Singapore and Hong Kong, is expected to be back in school soon, and his return to the Tech team will be a huge boost for the Rugger squad. Morrison, a junior, is a key player on the Tech team and his return will no doubt strengthen the team's defense.

Milt Athleties spot

One of the most important aspects of the athletic program is that the students in the administration of athletics be involved in the day-to-day operations of the teams. This involvement is essential to the success of the teams. The athletic director, who is responsible for the overall operation of the teams, must be involved in the day-to-day operations of the teams. The athletic director must be able to communicate effectively with the students in the administration of athletics, and the students in the administration of athletics must be able to communicate effectively with the athletic director.

Milt paces trophy win

By Allen Cohen

Don Schwanz '66 of the MIT athletic department announced that the Tech team had completed its first season of play and that the team had won the American Universities Trophy in a 13-7 victory over the Mid-Atlantic team consisting of Brown, Columbia, and MIT sailors in the Pire Trophy Races on Saturday, September 25.

Once a month during the school year, the American Universities Trophy is awarded to the team that is the first to finish the course. The team is determined by the order in which the teams finish the course. The team that finishes first is awarded the trophy.

Sports fans will first see the new facility to be sold at cost-

T-Club aids sports

The new T-Club facility will be located on the MIT athletic fields; however, it will not be open to the public. The T-Club facility will be used to provide refreshments to the fans attending the games. The T-Club facility will be operated by the T-Club, and the proceeds from the sales will be used to support the sports programs at MIT.

Non-sports fans will be able to enjoy the new facility as well. The T-Club facility will be open to the public, and the proceeds from the sales will be used to support the T-Club.

Rosters due October 1 for IM tennis tourney

The intramural tennis tournament will be held on the first day of October, and more than 30 teams are expected to participate. The tournament will be single elimination on a five point basis, and the winners will be determined by a best-of-three matches. Each individual match will consist of one set with no tiebreaks.

The tournament will be held at the Harvard Athletic Fields, and the matches will begin at 3:00 p.m. on October 1. The tournament will be open to all students and faculty, and the entry fee is $2 per player.

Swisswoman's tennis tourney wins

The Swisswoman's tennis tourney was won by the opening set of the New England International Association, which was won by the first set of the New England team, which led 13-7 over the Mid-Atlantic team consisting of Brown, Columbia, and MIT sailors in the Pire Trophy Races on Saturday, September 25.

Once a month during the school year, the American Universities Trophy is awarded to the team that is the first to finish the course. The team is determined by the order in which the teams finish the course. The team that finishes first is awarded the trophy.

-All Milt boat races

The Milt boat races in charge of the Milt boat races are open to all schools in New England and the Mid-Atlantic regions. The races will be held on Saturday, September 25, and the races will be open to all schools in New England and the Mid-Atlantic regions.

-IM football season to begin Saturday

IM fans will be treated to Saturday at the Harvard Athletic Fields, where the game will be played. The game is expected to be a close one, and the fans are expected to be on hand to watch.

-IM ranks in top ten among business execs

The 1993 edition of "Poor's Pick for the Poor's 400 Best-Performing Executives," shows Milt ranking tenth among college and university executives. This is the first year that Milt has placed in the top ten.

-All Milt boat races

The Milt boat races in charge of the Milt boat races are open to all schools in New England and the Mid-Atlantic regions. The races will be held on Saturday, September 25, and the races will be open to all schools in New England and the Mid-Atlantic regions.

-IM football season to begin Saturday

IM fans will be treated to Saturday at the Harvard Athletic Fields, where the game will be played. The game is expected to be a close one, and the fans are expected to be on hand to watch.