5 Fellowships Awarded

By John Curnow

Five alumni of MIT have received fellowships for graduate study at the Harvard School of Business this coming academic year.

By Ronald Ellis

Howard M. Ellis, of Bedford, New Jersey, graduated last June from MIT, and is now entering a two year program leading to the degree of Master in Business Administration. As an undergraduate, Howard served as Chairman of the Student Committee on Educational Policy, and was news editor and sports editor of THE TECH.

By Pete T. Van Aken

Mr. Peter T. Van Aken '65 is working for, the same degree, at MIT he was Chairman of the Finance Board and President of Alpha Phi Omega, the service fraternity at MIT. In addition, he was an honored recipient of the Kent Taylor Comptons Prize for "acumen, understanding and effectiveness in the administration of student affairs at MIT.""}

By Samuel Johnson

The Union Bag-Clamp Paper Corporation, which for many years has been associated with MIT's School of Architecture and Urban Planning, will this year be associated with its Program in Business Administration.

The information and listings published here will also be available in the form of the MIT Student Bulletin which is edited by Bob Howland, a member of the PAC.

Meetings and events may be included in the Student Bulletin and in the form by filling out a form in the Student Office of Mr. Jim Murphy's office in the Student Center at least 10 days in advance of the week the event is to occur.

The events in this column have been compiled by the Public Relations Committee of Innomer. This fall will become a regular service of the BRC and The Tech.

The information and listings published here will also be available in the form of the MIT Student Bulletin which is edited by Bob Howland, a member of the PAC.

Meetings and events may be included in the Student Bulletin and in the form by filling out a form in the Student Center Art Studios. Everyone is welcome to attend the meetings and events in this column. These events are sponsored by the MIT Radio Society, the MIT Lecture Association, and the MIT Christian Fellowship.

Meetings and events may be included in the Student Bulletin and in the form by filling out a form in the Student Center Art Studios. Everyone is welcome to attend the meetings and events in this column. These events are sponsored by the MIT Radio Society, the MIT Lecture Association, and the MIT Christian Fellowship.