Who is the best dressed man on campus at MIT? Esquire wants to know, and has launched a contest through THE Board will consist of 12 members, in addition to

A ballot for nominations and selections on the basis of general appearance, good grooming, wardrobe coordination, articulate expression and fashion awareness.

The Board also will participate in Esquire's 1966 Back-to-College Fashion Forum in New York, and will be photographed for the editorial fashion pages of Esquire's September issue.

Nominations close November 15th, after which, Esquire's fashion will visit MIT to interview nominees, and will make their selection on the basis of general appearance, good grooming, wardrobe coordination, articulate expression and fashion awareness.

MIT-SSRS topic: Can Berkeley Happen Here?

"Can Berkeley Happen Here?" will be the subject of the debate to be held during the planning meeting of the MIT Society for Social Responsibility in Science. The meeting will be on Thursday, October 14, at 8 pm in the Jackson Room, 10-38, and will be open to all students and members of the MIT community.

The MIT-SSRS, led by Steve Krasner, '66, seeks the full discussion on campus of the social responsibilities of scientists and engineers, emphasizing those of special interest to MIT students. Speaking to the group the fol-
