Soccer team loses to Norwich; Edges Brandeis 2-1 in overtime

By Bob Sultan

The Tech soccer edged out Brandeis with a 2-1 victory, which wasn't secured until the second overtime period of the game on Wednesday. October 30. Our squad easily outdistanced the Brandeis defense, beating them in succession without covering them, but couldn't seem to convert the goals. The brandeis won 2-1, and the Techs will go on to the next round.

Finally, early in the fourth period, Bayo Ajadi '88 dribbled a round a Brandeis back, caught the goalie off guard, and booted it in, breaking a Brandeis 1-1 period record. Brandeis' goalie matched the goal late in the period and the game went into overtime. Early in the second overtime period George Soby '89, passed to Bayo who fired it in for the winning goal.

The squad didn't fare as well on Thursday, November 5. Norwich played an aggressive first half. Somewhere in the second half, the whole Tech team was on the boil. The first half was a clean one, with the Techs leading 1-0. The second half was a bit confusing, but the Techs still managed to win 2-0.

There were several additional goals scored, but the Techs only had two. The Techs' win was a big one, with the team settling down after a slow start. The team settled down and played well, with the exception of the goalie. The goalie had a few breakdowns, but overall the team played well.
