Boaters achieve first victory, 2-0

By Tom Thomas

The MIT rowers won their first regatta of the season on Sunday, October 30. This victory clinched the championship for the MIT boats over Newton N.H.S. 2-0. There was no scoring in the first half, as both teams were evenly matched. In the second half, MIT put forth a strong effort, scoring two goals to win the match.

Steve Bridges, outside right, played an outstanding game. He scored on a penalty kick to break the ice. The second goal was assisted by another fine game from coach Steve Bridges, who is currently co-captain Carl Evers. MIT displayed once more that it is a balanced team garnering five goals.

There was no scoring in the first half, as both teams were evenly matched. In the second half, MIT put forth a strong effort, scoring two goals to win the match. Steve Bridges, outside right, played an outstanding game. He scored on a penalty kick to break the ice. The second goal was assisted by another fine game from coach Steve Bridges, who is currently co-captain Carl Evers. MIT displayed once more that it is a balanced team garnering five goals.

MIT freshmen sailors Dick Smith and Dave Fay (boat 18) raced three opposing crews in a qualifying race for the Priddy Trophy held on the Charles last Saturday. The Tech crew qualified for the finals, but placed sixth.

Smith, and Dave Fay, skipper, sailed the crew respectively, finished in sixth place. The first standings: 1. U. of Rhode -Boston U.-38; 26. Dartmouth-28. For the Priddy Trophy MIT (V) placed first in the NEISA sloop championships.

Buy you a new sports car?

Send you around the world at our expense?

Satisfy your appetite for every worldly and masculine pleasure?

---

No!

But we may offer you the opportunity to become an engineer with Public Service and experience both the excitement of discovery and the reward of an important, worthwhile career. 12-month training program • Interviewer on campus Nov. 10

---

MIT rowers win their first regatta of the season on Sunday, October 30. This victory clinched the championship for the MIT boats over Newton N.H.S. 2-0. There was no scoring in the first half, as both teams were evenly matched. In the second half, MIT put forth a strong effort, scoring two goals to win the match. Steve Bridges, outside right, played an outstanding game. He scored on a penalty kick to break the ice. The second goal was assisted by another fine game from coach Steve Bridges, who is currently co-captain Carl Evers. MIT displayed once more that it is a balanced team garnering five goals.

There was no scoring in the first half, as both teams were evenly matched. In the second half, MIT put forth a strong effort, scoring two goals to win the match. Steve Bridges, outside right, played an outstanding game. He scored on a penalty kick to break the ice. The second goal was assisted by another fine game from coach Steve Bridges, who is currently co-captain Carl Evers. MIT displayed once more that it is a balanced team garnering five goals.

MIT freshmen sailors Dick Smith and Dave Fay (boat 18) raced three opposing crews in a qualifying race for the Priddy Trophy held on the Charles last Saturday. The Tech crew qualified for the finals, but placed sixth.

Smith, and Dave Fay, skipper, sailed the crew respectively, finished in sixth place. The first standings: 1. U. of Rhode -Boston U.-38; 26. Dartmouth-28. For the Priddy Trophy MIT (V) placed first in the NEISA sloop championships.