Six races highlight Class Day Regatta

By Chuck Hottenger

The Committee on Academic Performance has announced that Friday, December 18, will be Class Day. The program of activities which an undergraduate student may select a subject for will be added to a regularly举行的二月六日, and the dining room and all other activities not in the second event will remain.

Subject drop date

The Committee on Academic Performance has announced that Friday, December 18, will be Class Day. The program of activities which an undergraduate student may select a subject for will be added to a regularly举行的二月六日, and the dining room and all other activities not in the second event will remain.

The subject drop date for 1967 will be the last day of the January term. It is the last day on which a student, either under class standing, may add or drop a course.

Six races highlight Class Day Regatta

By Chuck Hottenger

The Committee on Academic Performance has announced that Friday, December 18, will be Class Day. The program of activities which an undergraduate student may select a subject for will be added to a regularly举行的二月六日, and the dining room and all other activities not in the second event will remain.

Subject drop date

The Committee on Academic Performance has announced that Friday, December 18, will be Class Day. The program of activities which an undergraduate student may select a subject for will be added to a regularly举行的二月六日, and the dining room and all other activities not in the second event will remain.

The subject drop date for 1967 will be the last day of the January term. It is the last day on which a student, either under class standing, may add or drop a course.