First competition
Cagers win scrimmage

By John Kaplow

Varsity basketball Coach Jack Barry gave his squad a taste of ing, Coach Barry sent in a crew team, which gained valuable experience. Captains jack Macaulay was high score for the Beavers with 23; Janosan had 15, and Wilson 15 each, and third.

Fine season in store

Although the competition supplied by the Merchants was not representative of what they will be facing during the regular season, the MCBT could be able to look forward in a fine season. They showed fine shooting ability and great overall strength. If they are able to polish up their unorthodox manuvcrsals, they will be extremely hard to beat. The Beavers play between their man and the basket. In this defense instead of

between their man and the bas-

ket. In this defense instead of beating the ball out of the defense. With juniors Alex Wilson in control, although the competitor between frosh coach

Wayne Pecknold (left) and varsity

coach Ben Martin (right) is expected of them.

AULambda Chi's superiority as they rating streak as they defeated

Grad. Econ "A" 43-39 on the last week. They went in with a score of 36-36 at the end of the fourth period. The Pi Alpha pulled ahead in the second quarter, and Pete Catto '66 and Pete Get-match. The lift is a complete effort. Gene said that afterward he felt like he had hit a two-hour session.

Squats 750 pounds

Gene pressed 490 lbs., squatted the 1940 lbs. in his meet and took the Outstanding Lifter award, 4 meet qualifies for the '64 Olympics. first quarter and startled the Sam-victory over Delta Tau Delta. The were 425, 570, and 660 lbs. There was little question of the Alpha Epsilon Pi orded.

Outstanding Lifter award, 4 meet

Photo by Steve Rife

Photo by Desmond Booth

Cagers win scrimmage

By Steve Wiseer

The Lambda Chi team, which opens at home against Umass December 4, features the expectation of the team and the strength and in three at halftime.

With the game deadlocked 28-28 at the end of the regulation third quarter, PGD "A" took the lead by five. In the first period saw PGD on top by eight minutes remaining, Coach Barry sent in a reserve team, which gained valuable experience. Captains

Jack Macaulay was high score for

the Beavers with 23; Janosan

had 15, and Wilson 15 each, and

third.

Fine season in store

Although the competition sup-

plied by the Merchants was not

representative of what they will

be facing during the regular sea-

son, the MCBT could be able to look forward in a fine

season. They showed fine shoot-

ing ability and great overall

strength. If they are able to polish up their unorthodox manu-

vcrsals, they will be extremely

hard to beat. The Beavers play

between their man and the bas-

ket. In this defense instead of

beating the ball out of the
defense. With juniors Alex Wil-

son in control, although the com-

petitor between frosh coach

Wayne Pecknold (left) and varsity

coach Ben Martin (right) is expected of them.

AULambda Chi's superiority as they rating streak as they defeated

Grad. Econ "A" 43-39 on the last

week. They went in with a score of 36-36 at the end of the fourth

period. The Pi Alpha pulled ahead in the second quarter, and Pete Catto '66 and Pete Get-

match. The lift is a complete effort. Gene said that afterward he felt like he had hit a two-hour session.

Squats 750 pounds

Gene pressed 490 lbs., squatted

the 1940 lbs. in his meet and

took the Outstanding Lifter award, 4 meet

Photo by Steve Rife

Photo by Desmond Booth

Hockey opener Dec. 4; 8 letterman return

by Bob Selman

Gene Roberson, a course VI

member and a grad student from Birmingham,

Auburn, is an outstanding lifter. Gene trains two hours a day, prac-ing three days a week, practicing

at the Huntington YMCA. Roberson set three National Walt Maling records.

His best is 490 lbs. in the bench press record, which he set last year.

He is known it by watching MT roll ... n maximal effort. They are trained for having high hopes for other practice contest.

Maine U

AULambda Chi's superiority as they rating streak as they defeated

Grad. Econ "A" 43-39 on the last

week. They went in with a score of 36-36 at the end of the fourth

period. The Pi Alpha pulled ahead in the second quarter, and Pete Catto '66 and Pete Get-

match. The lift is a complete effort. Gene said that afterward he felt like he had hit a two-hour session.

Squats 750 pounds

Gene pressed 490 lbs., squatted

the 1940 lbs. in his meet and

took the Outstanding Lifter award, 4 meet

Photo by Steve Rife

Photo by Desmond Booth

Hockey opener Dec. 4; 8 letterman return

by Bob Selman

Gene Roberson, a course VI

member and a grad student from Birmingham,

Auburn, is an outstanding lifter. Gene trains two hours a day, prac-

ing three days a week, practicing

at the Huntington YMCA. Roberson set three National Walt Maling

records.

His best is 490 lbs. in the bench press record, which he set last year.

He is known it by watching MT roll ... n

maximal effort. They are trained for having high hopes for other practice contest.

Maine U