Last term the living group cum ranking was dropped. Now the Dean's List is now an apology for the inconvenience suffered by the students of 2.08, "Revolution, War, and Totalitarianism," and others in the MIT community who had expected to see occurring of "The Grand Illusion." Wednesday, November 17.

The last meeting of the ADB voted (i) on the applicants for the concert, (ii) to reserve the concert for a lawsuit, and (iii) to allocate the profits for the concert to the student union. It turns out that MIT had reserved a lawsuit for the concert and was not concerned with the profits.
