MacDonald stops 42
Skaters drop thriller to UMass
By Steve Winner

The hockey team lost a 5-2 thriller to the UMass skaters Satturday afternoon. The contest, played at Du Pont, featured a lead which switched hands four times and a last-try in venging wing Bob Cardigan.

The engineers dominated the puck for the opening minute of play. Seconds after the first line had been replaced wings Clayton Sadow '68 and Tony Pasquale '69 and center Mike Harris '68 teamed up for the game's initial goal. Snow lifted the puck by the stick of UMass goalie Bob Eddie.

Power play fails
MIT, one man up due to the tripping penalty of UMass' Matt Kalotkin, had been replaced wings Clayton Sadow '68 and Tony Pasquale '69 and center Mike Harris '68 teamed
up for the game's initial goal. Snow lifted the puck by the stick of UMass goalie Bob Eddie.

The remainder of the period saw a phenomenal display of defense by the Tech skaters. Because of aggressive penalties earned against the visitors, "Moose" Rosiner '66, Bob Smith '67, and Loren Wood '66 kept the visitors to a 9-0 lead. At the 20th minute Tony Pasquale, the hosts were skating at a two man handicap for close to four minutes. Effective defensive play by goalie MacDonald blanked the visitors till the end of third period. The second period saw even skating at a two man handicap for close to four minutes. Effective checking by Dennis Coleman 98 and Rosiner and fancy attwork by goalie MacDonald blanked the visitors till the period's end.

Vastly superior Clayton Sadow '68 faces off against UMass's Bob Cardigan in the third period of their game, Saturday, though Tech led half of the goals they helped to defeat MIT 5-3.

But as fast as one man found an opening, another would tighten up. Length of UMass' Matt Kalotkin was by waiting out small openings and making long, clean lunges. When the tiebreaking point was made.

The second period saw even play. Seconds after the first line
