Heroes and the Thyroid Research Unit at Massachusetts General Hospital and four years with Harvard University. After the School of Science.

De Gaulle's Prime Minister

Pierre Mende, France's former Premier of France, will deliver a lecture entitled "The Youngest Man to Win a Doctorate in Law" on the campus of the MIT Scholarly Program on Wednesday, March 15, at 8:30 p.m. in the Sala de Puerto Rico in the Student Center. The lecture is free and is open to the public.

Four take out UAP petitions

By Gerry Bassett

Four candidates for UAP and 46 candidates for various other class offices have already taken out nomination papers for the all-class elections of Tuesday, March 1, petitioning to be eligible for election. But they are due in room 401 of the MIT Press Building by 4 p.m. on Friday.

Statements accepted

The Tech will accept and publish statements from candidates in the UAP elections. Statements should not exceed 300 words, and president should not exceed 200. These statements submitted to The Tech office (Room 401 of the Student Center) Tech staff will also be accepted and published. Statements should be submitted in triplicate.

In the running for Undergraduate Associated Press (UAP) are George Picoult '67, Frank Murphy '66, Ken Thomson '66, Michael Hill '66, and Ted Nyeusen '67, Picoult, the former editor of the Alpha Delta Phi Omega, March is a resident of Burlington, House, Thurston, who was just re-elected. Monique Vidoth, is from Lamda Chi Al- pha. A member of Sigma Alpha Chi, Thurston is a resident of the Student Center Committee.

Activities Midway scheduled for Friday in Student Center

Activities Council will be holding its Spring Term Activities Midway in this Friday to raise funds for the program of the Student Center. The Midway is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m. and last until and about 10:30.

Most of the major activities and several smaller activities will have booths at the Midway, including The Tech, Tech En- gineering News, the International Community Association, MIT Flying Club, Urban Challenge, Tech Cath- olic Club, Symphony Orchestra, MIT War Games Society, and the Society for Social Responsibility in Business.

Activities Council feels that there is now an expiring chance for the sale of MIT's broad spectrum of activities which might interest them. facilities which might interest them. facilities which might interest them.

Further details concerning the activities of Activities Midway Committee, the President of the Activities Council.

Four take out UAP petitions

By Gerry Bassett

Four candidates for UAP and 46 candidates for various other class offices have already taken out nomination papers for the all-class elections of Tuesday, March 1, petitioning to be eligible for election. But they are due in room 401 of the MIT Press Building by 4 p.m. on Friday.

Statements accepted

The Tech will accept and publish statements from candidates in the UAP elections. Statements should not exceed 300 words, and president should not exceed 200. These statements submitted to The Tech office (Room 401 of the Student Center) Tech staff will also be accepted and published. Statements should be submitted in triplicate.

In the running for Undergraduate Associated Press (UAP) are George Picoult '67, Frank Murphy '66, Ken Thomson '66, Michael Hill '66, and Ted Nyeusen '67, Picoult, the former editor of the Alpha Delta Phi Omega, March is a resident of Burlington, House, Thurston, who was just re-elected. Monique Vidoth, is from Lamda Chi Al- pha. A member of Sigma Alpha Chi, Thurston is a resident of the Student Center Committee.

Activities Midway scheduled for Friday in Student Center

Activities Council will be holding its Spring Term Activities Midway in this Friday to raise funds for the program of the Student Center. The Midway is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m. and last until and about 10:30.

Most of the major activities and several smaller activities will have booths at the Midway, including The Tech, Tech En-

The Tech

An informal conversation with Guglielmo, a member of the MIT Press editorial staff, followed by a presentation of the new papers that are due in room 401 of the MIT Press Building by 4 p.m. on Friday.

By Sue Downs

The appointment was announced by Dean Jerome W. Mesher of the MIT Press.

De Gaulle's Prime Minister

Pierre Mende, France's former Premier of France, will deliver a lecture entitled "The Youngest Man to Win a Doctorate in Law" on the campus of the MIT Scholarly Program on Wednesday, March 15, at 8:30 p.m. in the Sala de Puerto Rico in the Student Center. The lecture is free and is open to the public.

Former French Premier

LSC presents Mendes-France

Pierre Mendes-France, former Premier of France, will deliver a lecture entitled "New Democratic Concepts in Europe, Thursday, April 30, at 8 p.m. in the Bala of the Peirce Student Center. The lecture is being presented by the Lecture Series Committee in conjunc- tion with the Department of Humanities. He will be introduced by President Slater.

Stormy period of French politics for two decades and currently is the youngest member of the French Cabinet. Born in 1918 in Paris, he is the son of a notary. His first foray into politics was at 21 when he was made Minister of Finance and Economics. Two years later he was appointed Minister of Finance and Economics. Four years later, he was the youngest Deputy ever to win the French National Assembly; and at 36, he was made France's Undersecretary of State for the Treas-

De Gaulle's Prime Minister

Pierre Mende, France's former Premier of France, will deliver a lecture entitled "The Youngest Man to Win a Doctorate in Law" on the campus of the MIT Scholarly Program on Wednesday, March 15, at 8:30 p.m. in the Sala de Puerto Rico in the Student Center. The lecture is free and is open to the public.

Former French Premier

LSC presents Mendes-France

Pierre Mendes-France, former Premier of France, will deliver a lecture entitled "New Democratic Concepts in Europe, Thursday, April 30, at 8 p.m. in the Bala of the Peirce Student Center. The lecture is being presented by the Lecture Series Committee in conjunc- tion with the Department of Humanities. He will be introduced by President Slater.

Stormy period of French politics for two decades and currently is the youngest member of the French Cabinet. Born in 1918 in Paris, he is the son of a notary. His first foray into politics was at 21 when he was made Minister of Finance and Economics. Two years later he was appointed Minister of Finance and Economics. Four years later, he was the youngest Deputy ever to win the French National Assembly; and at 36, he was made France's Undersecretary of State for the Treas-

De Gaulle's Prime Minister

Pierre Mende, France's former Premier of France, will deliver a lecture entitled "The Youngest Man to Win a Doctorate in Law" on the campus of the MIT Scholarly Program on Wednesday, March 15, at 8:30 p.m. in the Sala de Puerto Rico in the Student Center. The lecture is free and is open to the public.

Former French Premier

LSC presents Mendes-France

Pierre Mendes-France, former Premier of France, will deliver a lecture entitled "New Democratic Concepts in Europe, Thursday, April 30, at 8 p.m. in the Bala of the Peirce Student Center. The lecture is being presented by the Lecture Series Committee in conjunc- tion with the Department of Humanities. He will be introduced by President Slater.

Stormy period of French politics for two decades and currently is the youngest member of the French Cabinet. Born in 1918 in Paris, he is the son of a notary. His first foray into politics was at 21 when he was made Minister of Finance and Economics. Two years later he was appointed Minister of Finance and Economics. Four years later, he was the youngest Deputy ever to win the French National Assembly; and at 36, he was made France's Undersecretary of State for the Treas-

De Gaulle's Prime Minister

Pierre Mende, France's former Premier of France, will deliver a lecture entitled "The Youngest Man to Win a Doctorate in Law" on the campus of the MIT Scholarly Program on Wednesday, March 15, at 8:30 p.m. in the Sala de Puerto Rico in the Student Center. The lecture is free and is open to the public.

Former French Premier

LSC presents Mendes-France

Pierre Mendes-France, former Premier of France, will deliver a lecture entitled "New Democratic Concepts in Europe, Thursday, April 30, at 8 p.m. in the Bala of the Peirce Student Center. The lecture is being presented by the Lecture Series Committee in conjunc- tion with the Department of Humanities. He will be introduced by President Slater.

Stormy period of French politics for two decades and currently is the youngest member of the French Cabinet. Born in 1918 in Paris, he is the son of a notary. His first foray into politics was at 21 when he was made Minister of Finance and Economics. Two years later he was appointed Minister of Finance and Economics. Four years later, he was the youngest Deputy ever to win the French National Assembly; and at 36, he was made France's Undersecretary of State for the Treas-

De Gaulle's Prime Minister

Pierre Mende, France's former Premier of France, will deliver a lecture entitled "The Youngest Man to Win a Doctorate in Law" on the campus of the MIT Scholarly Program on Wednesday, March 15, at 8:30 p.m. in the Sala de Puerto Rico in the Student Center. The lecture is free and is open to the public.

Former French Premier

LSC presents Mendes-France

Pierre Mendes-France, former Premier of France, will deliver a lecture entitled "New Democratic Concepts in Europe, Thursday, April 30, at 8 p.m. in the Bala of the Peirce Student Center. The lecture is being presented by the Lecture Series Committee in conjunc- tion with the Department of Humanities. He will be introduced by President Slater.

Stormy period of French politics for two decades and currently is the youngest member of the French Cabinet. Born in 1918 in Paris, he is the son of a notary. His first foray into politics was at 21 when he was made Minister of Finance and Economics. Two years later he was appointed Minister of Finance and Economics. Four years later, he was the youngest Deputy ever to win the French National Assembly; and at 36, he was made France's Undersecretary of State for the Treas-

De Gaulle's Prime Minister

Pierre Mende, France's former Premier of France, will deliver a lecture entitled "The Youngest Man to Win a Doctorate in Law" on the campus of the MIT Scholarly Program on Wednesday, March 15, at 8:30 p.m. in the Sala de Puerto Rico in the Student Center. The lecture is free and is open to the public.

Former French Premier

LSC presents Mendes-France

Pierre Mendes-France, former Premier of France, will deliver a lecture entitled "New Democratic Concepts in Europe, Thursday, April 30, at 8 p.m. in the Bala of the Peirce Student Center. The lecture is being presented by the Lecture Series Committee in conjunc-