Wrestlers win decisively over Tufts

By Jim Yankouskas

The freshmen wrestling team scored a decisive victory over Tufts Wednesday. Losing only two of the nine matches, the grapplers won by a score of 36-1.

Greg Grindham got the win off to a fine start by pinning his 143-lb. opponent in the third period. Scudder Smith, 133, won by forfeit, and John Mashman, 145, came from behind to pin his opponent in the third period. Also scoring a pin was Keith Davies, unlimited, in the third period. Sudder Smith, 133, won by forfeit, and John Mashman, 145, all won their matches by decision. Also representing MIT were Dave Caplan, 130, and Julian Ho, scored a decisive victory over Tech.

In the third period, Scudder Smith, 132, won by forfeit, and John Mashman, 145, all won their matches by decisions. Also representing MIT were Dave Caplan, 130, and Julian Ho.

The freshmen wrestling team lost to Northeastern, 69-39, in an all-around taller team and controlled the backboards. High scorer for MIT was Tom de Forest with 25 points. Mike Perry won 15 points for Tech.

In the third period, Scudder Smith, 132, won by forfeit, and John Mashman, 145, all won their matches by decisions. Also representing MIT were Dave Caplan, 130, and Julian Ho.

The freshmen wrestling team lost to Northeastern, 69-39, in an all-around taller team and controlled the backboards. High scorer for MIT was Tom de Forest with 25 points. Mike Perry won 15 points for Tech.

In the third period, Scudder Smith, 132, won by forfeit, and John Mashman, 145, all won their matches by decisions. Also representing MIT were Dave Caplan, 130, and Julian Ho.

The freshmen wrestling team lost to Northeastern, 69-39, in an all-around taller team and controlled the backboards. High scorer for MIT was Tom de Forest with 25 points. Mike Perry won 15 points for Tech.

In the third period, Scudder Smith, 132, won by forfeit, and John Mashman, 145, all won their matches by decisions. Also representing MIT were Dave Caplan, 130, and Julian Ho.

Fencers down Brandeis; Foils win 8 of 9 duels

By Tony Lima

A good showing in the foil helped the fencing team to a 19-8 win over Brandeis Tuesday on their opponent's home ground. The foil team won eight of the nine matches, led by Leonard Zierler '67.

Zierler won all three of his matches, and probably would have been matched with Pete Asbeck '80, who won two of his matches before being replaced in the final bout. Bert Rothermy '67, who replaced Asbeck, won the bout, completing the sweep.

Tech came very close to completely sweeping the event, as George Churinoff '67, last an extremely close match to Brandeis' Kaplan, five touches to four. The Techmen as completely dominated the event that Asbeck out-touches his two opponents 10 touches to 1, while Zierler out-touches his three opponents 15-4.

In the saber, there were several tight matches, the closest being between Tech's Bob Brooks '68 and Brandeis' Cohen. Brooks came back from being down 3 touches to none to win the match 5-4. Bob Fall '68 and Brooks lost close matches, while Tom Seddon '68 won two out of three.

The epee was highlighted by a match Karl Klim '68 who swept his three matches. There were two very close matches in this event, as John Stokitis '68 and Darrel Surtin '68 both lost by the scores of 8-4. Techs won the event 5 matches to 4.

The fencers' next match will be against Payne Institute at Swellesley tomorrow at 2 p.m.