The Benchwarmer

Brown adds to records

By Tom Thomas

In his 3 years of varsity competition, Summer Brown '66 has established himself as a long distance runner in MIT history. Brown added to his already long list of MIT and cage records Saturday in the two-mile on the slow cage track.

Although he finished second to Harvard's Jan Baker in the BHC meet, Summer ran perhaps the best race of his career, eclipsing Henry Grunier's record of 9:36.0 set in 1956. The Pittsburgh, Pa. native was the favorite among the 10 for the NCAA meet to be held in New York March 5.

The unofficial IM standings for first term intramurals have been released. These include basketball, the point totals stand as follows:

1. Burton House 208.3
2. Sigma Chi 215.0
3. Lambda Chi Alpha 276.5
4. Phi Delta Theta 318.7
5. Beta Theta Pi 344.2

A gymnastics exhibition featuring world-famed trampoline champ George Earle, the greatest All-American at 7'11.5, 315, and another world's professional trampoline champion, will perform for one hour. A clinic for gymnasts will be held.

The Gymnastics Club has opened the exhibition to the public with no admission charge. President Peter Amaturz encourages all those interested to attend.

This IM season will get underway this weekend with

Schramms wins ninth

By Arnon Vareenvala

The varsity majority scratched their season record to eight wins against four losses last Wednesday as they resumed a team from Tufts, 27-5. Tufts had to

By John Topoller

MIT's varsity basketball squad was beaten Wednesday night by a very talented and well-drilled North Eastern Connecticut quintet. The 87-67 setback, only the Beavers' sixth in 35 games played this season, was of great importance both for MIT and North Eastern as the Huskies began to control the unbelievable hot shooting of their guard Bill Cost II with 27 minutes advantage they

The annual banquet of the New England Women's Intercollegiate Skating Association will be Saturday afternoon, May 19. The meeting was attended by representatives from MIT the afternoon of February 22.

In the Mass分为chusetts Game Room of the Student Center, the meeting opened with the business sessions of the members school, Boston College, Boston University, Connecticut College, Jackson, MIT, Mt. Holyoke, Radcliffe, Regis, Simmons, University of Rhode Island, and Wesleyan University, Vermont,托运 (Northeastern), and Maine College.

The purpose of the meeting was to elect new officers for the coming season, to vote for prospective members, and present trophies to the winners of last fall's regatta. Coach Fred Hoffman '68 was elected to the position of secretary. After discussing the movie was shown of the regatta held at the University of Rhode Island last spring.

The Beavers have three games left on their schedule, including a game tomorrow night against Brooklyn College in Rockwell Cage starting at 7 p.m.

By Steve Winner

The university hockey team downed Babson Tuesday by a 2-1 margin, skiing to its third victory in eight outings. The last week's 6-5 loss to the same opponent, Ben Martin's squad looked its best as it controlled the puck throughout the contest. The visitors required only six moves to get two goals and failed to tally in the eight minutes during which it was shorthanded. Babson successfully load the puck and blanked shots to tie the score.

The count remained at 0-0 through seven minutes of the second period before captain Loren Wood '68 broke the ice by scoring on assists from Clayton Fast '68 and Mike Harris '68. Though this 1-0 score still stood at the period's end, it was not indicative of play. In outshooting their opponents the Beavers outshot Babson 9-2 in six minutes. The forwards managed to score three goals in the second period and maintain a substantial lead throughout the tally.

The team will be shooting for victory number four against Wellesley Saturday at 7 p.m.

Junior Alan Wilson leads above two Northeastern defenders to the puck. Wilson's shot fell through after feeding Wilson. The Beavers lost the crucial contest 24-17 to bring the team two game losing streak.

Skaters average previous loss; Down Babson 2-1 on home ice

The Beavers' lack of cohesion was downed Babson Tuesday by a 2-1 margin, skiing to its third victory in eight outings. The last week's 6-5 loss to the same opponent, Ben Martin's squad looked its best as it controlled the puck throughout the contest. The visitors required only six moves to get two goals and failed to tally in the eight minutes during which it was shorthanded. Babson successfully load the puck and blanked shots to tie the score.

The count remained at 0-0 through seven minutes of the second period before captain Loren Wood '68, broke the ice by scoring on assists from Clayton Fast '68 and Mike Harris '68. Though this 1-0 score still stood at the period's end, it was not indicative of play. In outshooting their opponents the Beavers outshot Babson 9-2 in six minutes. The forwards managed to score three goals in the second period and maintain a substantial lead throughout the tally.

The team will be shooting for victory number four against Wellesley Saturday at 7 p.m.