Election Day 1966

The Tech feels that it has an obligation to present its president of the Class of 1967 for the past two years. We have here been considered a knowledge of what the position of Undergraduate Association President entails and an idea of the qualifications necessary in order to successfully carry out the duties of his office.

The candidates are as follows: George Piccagli despite the fact that he has served as the

Of the remaining three candidates, The Tech cannot name George Piccagli for UAP must rely on the force of his personality to best represent our interests. UAP to lead by the example of The Tech.
