by Thomas Nehill
Prof. Greene of the MIT Department of Humanities has produced a humble little book which commands quite favorably with much of profound contemporary literature. Prof. Greene's style is lusty, gently humorous, and usually quite delicate, all of which qualities make this book not only a didactic but also a very enjoyable experience.

MESSAGES OF ART
Prof. Greene uses the majority of his 20 pages not for discussing the criticism of art (the title of the book approaches a riddle), but rather what is necessary before a sensible criticism can even be formed—a knowledge of art itself. Beginning with the closest

THE BIBLE SAYS:

Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. (2 Cor. 5:17.)
