Fly-in for half the price.

Braniff International's new fare, for anyone, for anything, covers the cost of flying in half. At these prices, the fly-in may soon become as popular as the other things being done today. (We will permit guitar-strumming and folk-singing on route, no noisy political debates, please.)

Eligibility requirements are simple. Just send us a $3.00 registration fee, and we'll issue an identification card which, when validated, will entitle you to buy tickets at a half price on our flights in the United States.

Soon, the same card will qualify you for discounts on hotels and other services. Make your application in person at any Braniff office. Or mail the coupon below.

Baker Committee seeks nominations
The deadline for nominations for the Baker Award for Outstanding Undergraduate Teaching is March 15. They may be submitted to Kenneth Ault, 4 Ames Street, Cambridge.

Any faculty member below the rank of full professor is eligible if he has demonstrated truly outstanding teaching characteristics in and out of the classroom. Nominations need not be in the form of petitions; a letter is sufficient.

The Award consists of $500 and a bronze medal, which will be presented at the annual Awards Convocation April 22.

Chezze in Femme
They're everywhere They've everywhere! Well, maybe not everywhere, but for the first time this term girls in the Boston area are ready to get back to that most essential element of college life—the mixer.

This weekend, there are four separate mixer plans, all for an 8 p.m. to 12 midnight shift. Of particular interest to the Tedman may be that at Fisher Jr. College, where some lucky (he hopes) guy could, after mere $25 investment, walk off with that most desired of prizes, a Fisher Jr. College necklace.
