The Executive Committee of the Student Senate has heard the first of a series of part-time press conferences for the benefit of the living groups, the publications, and WYFR. Several stories were released throughout the year, which are expected to increase student awareness of events occurring in the United Government and student community. Tentative plans were outlined for the construction of a newspaper platform outside the Student Center. Regular reading room hours will be maintained along with hours to gain plants to provide spring.