Basil Rathbone presents drama, poetry readings

Basil Rathbone will bring his unique one-man presentation, "In and Out of Character," to Kresge Auditorium April 19. A dramatic presentation of the works of the English-speaking world's great poets, novelists and playwrights, "In and Out of Character" features selections from Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, Edgar Allan Poe, Housman, Browning, Shakespeare, and others.

The evening begins with Mr. Rathbone's reminiscences of his many-faceted career in the theatre. He proceeds from stage recollections to a poetry session, and closes the evening with "Junes" from Shakespeare.

Tickets will be good only until 7:30 p.m. on the night of the performance, at which time the doors will be opened to non-ticket holders until the auditorium is full.

Are You Geeka Lover? Then $7 are you planning a trip to Saigon? Are you over cars and trucks? Do you want to read and write and think and dream? Four teams left in IM volleyball

The Intramural volleyball season is reaching a climax with only four teams remaining out of an initial 30 teams entered in the tournament.

In last week's section, Sage "A" upset Ashdown "A," 5-2, and Club Mediterraneo beat Chinese Students 24-0 to remain undefeated in the double elimination series. Being previously unbeaten, Chi- nese Students and Ashdown were still alive and proceeded to defeat their opponents in the losers' bracket, Club Mediterraneo and TEP, by identical 20 tallies. In the next round, these two winners will play each other with the loser being eliminated and the winner advancing to play in the finals. In the finals, Sage will play Club Mediterraneo. The losers' bracket winners will join these two teams in the final rounds. The double elimination tournament will be completed by next week.
