Basil Rathbone presents drama, poetry readings

Basil Rathbone will bring his unique one-man presentation, "In and Out of Character," to Kresge Auditorium April 19. A dramatic presentation of the works of the English-speaking world's great poets, novelists and playwrights. "In and Out of Character" features selections from Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, Edgar Allen Poe, Housman, Browning, Shakespeare, and others.

The evening begins with Mr. Rathbone's reminiscences of his many-faceted career in the theatre. He proceeds from stage recollections to a poetry session, and closes the evening with scenes from Shakespeare.

Tickets will be sold only until 7:30 p.m. on the night of the performance, at which time the doors will be opened to non-ticket holders until the auditorium is full.

LSC Presents Rod Steiger in stirring role

By Elie Kline
together, LSC is featuring "The Pawnbroker" starring Rod Steiger, Geraldine Fitzgerald, and James Saito. The movie is a stirring drama of the bleak and soulful existence of a New York pawnbroker. Haunted by memories of the destruction of his family by the Nazis, Rod Steiger as the pawnbroker brilliantly portrays the near destruction of a lonely man.

Remariable photography including slow motion flashbacks and split second images of Nazi horrors reflect the intense feelings of Steiger. Although depressing, "The Pawnbroker" is highly recommended.

Tomorrow evening the presentation will be followed by a "Hump Day" discussion.

Four teams left in IM volleyball

The Intramural volleyball season is reaching a climax with only four teams remaining out of an initial 30 teams entered in the tournament.

Last week's action, SAE "A," upset Ashdown "A," 3-1, and Club Mediterranean beat Chinese Students 2-0, remaining undefeated in the double elimination series. Being previously unbeaten, Chinese Students and Ashdown were still alive and proceeded to defeat their opponents in the losers' bracket, Club Latino and TEDT, by identical 2-0 tallies. In the next round, those two winners will play each other with the loser being eliminated and the winner advancing to be in the finals.

In the finals, SAE will play Club Mediterranean. The losers' bracket winner will join those two teams in the final rounds. The double elimination tournament will be completed by next week.
