Trackmen edge Tufts, 75-74

By Roce Varnerud

On the strength of a victory in the mile relay, the varsity oarsmen outdistanced the Ecological Tufts 75-74 of the 119 yard dash in Wednesday's meet with Tufts. He also ran on the winning 880 relay which opened the meet.

A three-man Tech delegation competed to take three firsts in the weight events, as well as "not bad" performances in the high hurdles and the hammer. Pete Maybeck '67 took first in the hammer throw with a toss of 167'10" as well as a sec-

Lightweight cruisers record two wins over Taub

By Jim Yanatsakis

The freshmen lightweight crew scored two unbeatenn wins over Tufts Wednesday. The heavier Tufters, winners of the Monson Cup in England last year, made a valiant run at the beginning of both races, but the Tech men managed to pull ahead in the finishing sprint.

In the first boat this Mike Lerc- h and Steve Anderson zipped ahead to keep a slower stroke than Tufts and beat six outs on the on-mile course. The time was 5:12, Tech's second best, as well as the single best by a length.

The second Tech boat rowed a similar race against the visitors sec-

UMass defeats lacrossemen, 61- score four times in final period

By Tony Liao

Owen Martin '67's varsity lacrossemen were overcome by the strong UMass team Tuesday night, going down by the score of 61. Both teams held advantages in the first quarter and midfield through the second, UMass scoring twice within twenty seconds to take a 2-0 lead in the second quarter saw no scoring and, after Owen Martin '67's shutout in the 3rd, UMass took the lead. The visitors scored at 5:09, 7:09, 7:20, and 10:20 to put the game on ice.

Outstanding player in the game was Tech's John Aron, who made several goals, including two in the final quarter, and the first goal of the game. The outstanding play for the engineers was goalie Bob Macdonald '67, who made saves in each half before being replaced with 3 minutes left by Tom Taylor. Taylor made few saves to bring the MIT total to UMass' goalies. UMass called upon only 6 times in the course of the game, and only twice in the second half.

Defensive failure

The story of the game was the defense. The number of saves made by each team was almost the same, along with the fact that Tech took 26 shots compared to the visitors' two.

The team's record now stands at 1 and 5. Their next game is tomorrow at Amherst at 3 pm.

Golfers falter, lose two; final hole decides 5 points

By Steve Winner

Poor play on the eighteen holes once again cost the men's golf team a heartbreaking defeat for the var-
