Be Diddley-and has been con-的可能性 about whether he would perform in the folk or rock 'n roll idiom and regarding his future plans along these lines. He performed on acoustic guitar with only Harvey Brooks on string bass as accomplishment. In an interview, the rest of which will be printed in the next issue of Innisfree, Rush indicated that he has alounced that if he is selected for hit, although it has not yet entered the Billboard charts. Rush seems dissatisfied with the song, saying that he recorded it only as a joke.' He complained that the multiple-recording techniques caused it not to sound like him.

He much prefers 'The Urges

For Going,' a song which has not been recorded on either a single or album. WRG played a tape of it for a while. The song, which was recorded on the tape with amplified guitars also performed it on acoustic guitar.

Nothing can take the press out of Lee-Prest slacks

Not that it’s on his mind right now. And it needn’t be. These Lee-Prest Leesures can’t help but stay crisp and neat. No matter what you put them through. They have a new permanent press. So the creases stay in. The wrinkles stay out. Permanently. And that’s without ironing. No touch-ups, either. They’re made from Lee’s special blend of 50% polyester and 50% combed cotton. For wash and wear… with conviction.

Incidentally, that’s permanent press is the only change we’ve made in Leesures. They still have that lean, honest look…smart, tailored fit.

New Lee-Prest Leesures. Test their permanent press yourself. It isn’t necessary, but it’s a great way to spend an evening. From $9.00 to $10.00.
