Racketmen lose 2 straight; bow to Brown and Williams

By Joe Steele
The teams lost to two strong opponents last week, bowing to Brown and Williams at Providence and to 90 at Williams-town.

Against Brown Wednesday afternoon, the only two Tech wins ocurred in singles, while Dave Chandler '66 and Carl Weissgerber '86 scored at the number one and two positions. Weissgerber played some of his best tennis to date, coming from behind to defeat Bob Bruce 1-6, 6-2, 6-3. Lifeline Chandler was in good form and handled Georges Schneiderein 6-3, 6-1. Coach Crocker's doubles teams lost but three matches, managing to give Brown an easy victory.

The Williams team, fresh from a 4-2 victory over a crack squad, lost only one set in the 9-2 victory over the engineers. The only bright spot for MIT came when Chandler's precision lobbing led to a 7-5 first set over Tom Thornhill. But Thornhill regained his poise and ran off eleven straight games, winning 6-0, 6-1.
