BU tops varsity nine 21-16 in game marked by errors

By Tony Lima
The varsity golfers walked off with their faces in the mud, and a few wet clothes, but they left the course with smiles on their faces. The team finished the day with a 357 score, good enough for second place in the six-team field.

The first round was a wet and wild one, with rain and wind making it difficult for the players to keep their focus. But the team persevered, with each player contributing to the team's success.

Senior House 11-5, East Campus 9-7, and Theta Chi dumped ATO 10-6; and Senior House took on ATO 11-5; East Campus defeated Ashdown "A." The team of Bob Karney, Sam Robinson, and Michael Ryba "67, won 6-2, 6-1, to take the lead 6-2. BU came back in the first game, with a 6-2, 6-1, win over the seniors. The final score was 3-2, 2-1, in favor of the seniors.

Congratulations are in order for Jack Rector '68 and Ron Schrader '67, who went 8-0 on the day, and Jack Cleary "68, who went 7-1. The team went on to win the final match against Bowdoin, with a score of 8-2.

The varsity golfers are now looking forward to the final week of the season, and hope to finish strong.

Photo by Jeff Reynolds

Burrton 'B' upsets LCJ

By Dave Lyon
Burrton 'B' scored the upset of the day, defeating LCJ 3-2 on Friday afternoon. The win puts the Boston University golf team in contention for the softball title.

The first round was a close one, with the score tied at 1-1. In the second round, LCJ pulled ahead with a 2-1 win, but Burrton 'B' took the lead back with a 2-1 win in the third round. The final score was 3-2 in favor of Burrton 'B'.

The varsity golfers are now looking forward to the final week of the season, and hope to finish strong.

Photo by Jeff Reynolds

Lacrossemen take fourth straight

By Steve Wimer
The MIT lacrosse team moved into contention for the national championship with a 17-7 win over Bowdoin Wednesday afternoon. The win puts the team in second place in the eight-team field.

The MIT offense was led by senior forward John Preston '68, who scored five goals and added two assists. The MIT defense was led by junior goalkeeper Bill Elison, who made 14 saves.

The MIT lacrosse team is now looking forward to the final week of the season, and hopes to finish strong.

Photo by Jeff Reynolds

Golfers defeat Bowdoin, 4-3, lose to UNH to split triangular

By Steve Wimer
The MIT golfers split a triangular meet Wednesday to gain their fourth victory on the spring campaign. Playing in wintry conditions, the varsity nine, winners over New Hampshire, defeated UNH 3-2, but were defeated by Bowdoin 4-3.

The MIT team was led by junior forward John Preston '68, who scored five goals and added two assists. The MIT defense was led by junior goalkeeper Bill Elison, who made 14 saves.

The MIT lacrosse team is now looking forward to the final week of the season, and hopes to finish strong.

Photo by Jeff Reynolds

Intramural action

The Benchwarmer

6 winter captains named

By Tom Thomas
Within the past few weeks, the six remaining winter captains for the '67-'68 season have been announced. Named to hold an outstanding group of swimmers was this year's "man of the year" award winner, John Preston '68 from Manchester, Conn.

Coach Charlie Battaraman will inherit a freshman team with an experienced roster from mentor David Michael to join his 5-8 team. Invitations will also be issued to the coaches and the athletically talented. Juniors Richard Haberman and Paavo Pykkonen were named to the team.

The only close match either day occurred at the number one position. Also, the winners were the only two players to win both their matches. The win for UNH, on the other hand, was their only close match. The team of Bob Karney, Sam Robinson, and Michael Ryba "67, won 6-2, 6-1, to take the lead 6-2. BU came back in the first game, with a 6-2, 6-1, win over the seniors. The final score was 3-2, 2-1, in favor of the seniors.

The varsity golfers are now looking forward to the final week of the season, and hope to finish strong.

Photo by Jeff Reynolds

On Deck

By John Nielsen
The varsity nine, winners over New Hampshire, defeated UNH 3-2, but were defeated by Bowdoin 4-3.

The MIT team was led by junior forward John Preston '68, who scored five goals and added two assists. The MIT defense was led by junior goalkeeper Bill Elison, who made 14 saves.

The MIT lacrosse team is now looking forward to the final week of the season, and hopes to finish strong.

Photo by Jeff Reynolds

Sagamore "A" defeated Bowdoin 4-3, lose to UNH to split triangular

By Steve Wimer
The MIT golfers split a triangular meet Wednesday to gain their fourth victory on the spring campaign. Playing in wintry conditions, the varsity nine, winners over New Hampshire, defeated UNH 3-2, but were defeated by Bowdoin 4-3.

The MIT team was led by junior forward John Preston '68, who scored five goals and added two assists. The MIT defense was led by junior goalkeeper Bill Elison, who made 14 saves.

The MIT lacrosse team is now looking forward to the final week of the season, and hopes to finish strong.

Photo by Jeff Reynolds

Racketmen romp record now 7-3

By Ken Steele
The team tennis chaped up to stay atop in the league, defeating Brandeis 9-0, and Brandeis 9-3, Tuesday.

The only close match either day occurred at the number one position. Also, the winners were the only two players to win both their matches. The win for UNH, on the other hand, was their only close match. The team of Bob Karney, Sam Robinson, and Michael Ryba "67, won 6-2, 6-1, to take the lead 6-2. BU came back in the first game, with a 6-2, 6-1, win over the seniors. The final score was 3-2, 2-1, in favor of the seniors.

The varsity golfers are now looking forward to the final week of the season, and hope to finish strong.

Photo by Jeff Reynolds

Graduate golf finishes

Course XIII, LeBron won

Course XIII captured the graduation day title in the 400 and 800 yard, with a time of 9:20. Brown in the 2 mile. The varsity golfers split a tri-

By Bob Espen
The varsity golfers defeated Bowdoin 4-3, but were defeated by UNH 3-2.

The MIT team was led by junior forward John Preston '68, who scored five goals and added two assists. The MIT defense was led by junior goalkeeper Bill Elison, who made 14 saves.

The MIT lacrosse team is now looking forward to the final week of the season, and hopes to finish strong.

Photo by Jeff Reynolds

Racketmen romp

record now 7-3

By Ken Steele
The team tennis chaped up to stay atop in the league, defeating Brandeis 9-0, and Brandeis 9-3, Tuesday.

The only close match either day occurred at the number one position. Also, the winners were the only two players to win both their matches. The win for UNH, on the other hand, was their only close match. The team of Bob Karney, Sam Robinson, and Michael Ryba "67, won 6-2, 6-1, to take the lead 6-2. BU came back in the first game, with a 6-2, 6-1, win over the seniors. The final score was 3-2, 2-1, in favor of the seniors.

The varsity golfers are now looking forward to the final week of the season, and hope to finish strong.

Photo by Jeff Reynolds

Graduate golf finishes

Course XIII, LeBron won

Course XIII captured the graduation day title in the 400 and 800 yard, with a time of 9:20. Brown in the 2 mile. The varsity golfers split a tri-

By Bob Espen
The varsity golfers defeated Bowdoin 4-3, but were defeated by UNH 3-2.

The MIT team was led by junior forward John Preston '68, who scored five goals and added two assists. The MIT defense was led by junior goalkeeper Bill Elison, who made 14 saves.

The MIT lacrosse team is now looking forward to the final week of the season, and hopes to finish strong.

Photo by Jeff Reynolds

Graduate golf finishes

Course XIII, LeBron won

Course XIII captured the graduation day title in the 400 and 800 yard, with a time of 9:20. Brown in the 2 mile. The varsity golfers split a tri-