Debut at APO Carnival

Losers arrive on campus scene

By Orky Polk

On a Thursday in late October last fall, two MIT undergraduates pooled their combined financial resources of sixty dollars to buy a Harmony electric guitar.

Today they are members of a five-man rock 'n' roll band known on the Institute's campus as The Losers.

The band has developed over a relatively short period of time through great investment of time, Saturday night practice, and, of course, borrowed money.

The idea for the formation of the group was born in the mind of lead singer Jack Wright '66.

He and Tim Comely, a freshman, bought the first guitar, and soon afterwards Frank Goetz '66, Theta Tau '67 and John Corwin '68 joined up to form the present gang, all are brothers of Theta Delta Chi.

The choice of a name for the group was far from simple.

Philosophers of determinism conceived hopeful hopes of catchphrases, and every name from Aardvarks to Zanibar was considered worthless and evenly carefully rejected.

The name was finally determined beyond the point of reversal when the group undertook a project to list the State of New Jersey.

Today, June 16, with a colonial dance at the Courtyard, the leading social gathering place of Irvington, a $50 advertising campaign has produced the results of the area that The Losers will provide for them a timely opportunity on school-year-end celebrations.

Bass player Frank Goetz has stated vague hopes that the Losers will become "rich and famous." The group has been learning, with each new experience, particularly at the recent APO Carnival, that these are indeed separate and distinct concepts.

If you haven't examined a new Chevrolet since Telstar II, the twist or electric toothbrushes, shame on you!

You've been missing out on a lot that's new and better since '62:
