Back Bay council to prepare wide study of community

There is evidence that these invaders exist. Just the other night s(view on this document. As well as organization. And the school.

The Corporation reports directly to the Council, which in turn reports to the Boston Redevelopment Authority, a municipal orcation. Under the leadership of the Back Bay Council, the Corporation is not an official branch of the city government, and any expenditures of $200,000 will be paid by private citizens.

Excessive studies planned With the Council to act as a planning board, the Corporation will build its recommendations around the interests of the various sectors of the community and around its own researches. The Committee, in the course of its, andTile and land use and have been engaged.

By the end of 1971 the complicated study will be brought to the BBA and recommendations will be made. Action, hopefully, will follow, in the form of a multi-itude of new projects, including street improvements, renovation of existing buildings, new landscaping, and provisions for parking. No total renewal campaign by the city is in sight, however; Back Bay will not be differentiated to make room for efficiency apartment ments and insurance buildings. As Scollay Square was wiped out for the sake of Government Center.
