Tech powered over by Trinity, 10-3

By Tim James

Trinity combined three home runs and six MIT errors to score 10 runs in the first inning, claiming a 10-3 victory over the Engineers. The Berry's varsity nine. Jim Reid followed with seven more runs on six hits. Trinity scored only one unearned run.

All of MIT's three runs were scored in the fifth inning. A single from Todd Doherty was followed by a walk from John Abraham Dorsey and a base hit from Mike Zuteck '67. Another walk from Ted Cerny brought in Doherty and Dorsey, but Zuteck was thrown out on a fielder's choice for the third out.

About equal times, but both were unable to score until the last minute of the half. Art von Waldburg hit a bases-loaded three-run homer in the first minute of the game. Mike Zuteck '67 hit a bases-loaded three-run home run in the first minute of the game. Mike Zuteck '67 hit a bases-loaded three-run home run in the first minute of the game. Mike Zuteck '67 hit a bases-loaded three-run home run in the first minute of the game.