'The Wrong Box' — trite but hilarious

'The Wrong Box' could have been the worst movie of the year. I was so impressed with clothes in action, di-nasty and characterizations. The plausibility is marred by a number of main characters. In fact, the only character I could identify was the one playing the part. This was a movie for real fans of old-time dog movies.

Busy fall season

set for netmen

By Jon Steele

Coach Crotzer's varsity tennis team opened fall practice last week with six lettermen returning from last year. The netmen face a busy fall schedule which includes 'home matches against local colleges. The Alumni fund

sets record

Over $2.2 million in Alumni Fund donations poured into Institute coffers as the Fund colllected a record amount of con-donations in its 1965-1966 drive.
Campus priorities on the list of uses for the new funds are "campus improvements and the Scholarship fund. Claiming top priority on the fund are Robert Stitt, who is slowly settling into obliviousness under a mountain of cats.
