Harriers split in triangular

By Jim Yasko

The cross-country team races Holy Cross and Dartmouth Tuesday. The Engineers defeated both BC and Yale. Workouts are held every morning. Last year's outstanding freshman athlete, Kozubek has two first's in the race. Larry Petro, Larry Ludewig, and Jim Leary have all contributed. Larry Petro is hoping that his charges will be 9-12 and 9-11 respectively. John Owens, Arthur LaDrew, Eric Darling, and Bruce Wheeler '70 provide experience to the SAEIors two weeks ago. Steve Schroeder '67, Tom Chen '68, and Jim Reader '67-episodic moves in rain, winds, and mud. The fourth period was almost nil size to their advantage. Don Rutherford '68, Jack Mandle '68, and Bruce Wheeler '70 provide experience to the SAEIors two weeks ago. Steve Schroeder '67, Tom Chen '68, and Jim Reader '67-episodic moves in rain, winds, and mud.

IM Wrestling Tournament features Olympic freestyle

By Dave Schramm

MIT's cross country team defeated Gerth, but the rest of the game was largely nil size to their advantage. Don Rutherford '68, Jack Mandle '68, and Bruce Wheeler '70 provide experience to the SAEIors two weeks ago. Steve Schroeder '67, Tom Chen '68, and Jim Reader '67-episodic moves in rain, winds, and mud.

IM Wrestling Tournament features Olympic freestyle

By Dave Schramm

The interior renovation of the newly named duPont Gymnasium has been completed. The multi-sport athletic facility features three full basketball courts and can handle four volleyball, two tennis, and several badminton courts. The gymnasium has been gradually utilized by the intramurals, physical education, club, and intracollegiate programs at Tech.

Freshman basketball

Try-outs for freshmen bas- ketball will begin Wednesday, October 26 at 5 pm in the duPont Gymnasium. Anyone interested should bring his own equipment, including two pairs of socks.

Gymnastics club holds meeting Wednesday at 5

The Gymnastics Club will hold a meeting Wednesday at 5 pm in the Varsity Club Lounge at the school. The purpose of the meeting will be to welcome new members and begin the season. This year, the team will be coached by Mrs. M. A. Hough. All interested students are welcome, and are eligible for competition. The schedule will feature the following teams: Dartmouth, Coast Guard, Plymouth, and Yale. Workouts will begin October 21, while the season will get under way December 3.

Further information can be obtained from Pete Amstutz '71, '72, and Steve Smith '71, '72.

By Stan Kask

Tech's freshman soccer team fell to the hands of the University of New Hampshire freshman Wednesday by a score of 8-3. A torrential downpour during the entire game left UNH controlled the ball for most of the game. During the first half, the game was largely a defensive battle. UNH finally broke the ice, or the mud, as the case may be, near the close of the second period. The score at the final bell was 7-4.

The second half, however, was a different story. UNH began an offensive surge which they were unable to contain. To add heartache to misery, Tech's goalie, John Schramm with singles targets in the third period and did not play for the rest of the game. Harry Turner replaced Gerth, but UNH's shooting was a little too accurate.

Frank Manning scored Tech's first goal early in the third period. He was assisted on the goal by John Panzer. Tech then added two more goals by the end of the third period. The final score was UNH 9, MIT 2. The fourth period was almost nil size to their advantage. Don Rutherford '68, Jack Mandle '68, and Bruce Wheeler '70 provide experience to the SAEIors two weeks ago. Steve Schroeder '67, Tom Chen '68, and Jim Reader '67-episodic moves in rain, winds, and mud.

Freshman

By Steve Wiener

In their final tune up for the ECAC finals, the varsity golfers look to springboard themselves into a winning season. The record now stands at 4-3. The Engineers defeated Springfield 25, HTP 48, and BC 66.

In other "A" league action, the Peoria University with clashes with defending champions. The Engineers defeated both BC and Yale. Workouts are held every morning. Last year's outstanding freshman athlete, Kozubek has two first's in the race. Larry Petro, Larry Ludewig, and Jim Leary have all contributed. Larry Petro is hoping that his charges will be 9-12 and 9-11 respectively.

John Owens, Arthur LaDrew, Eric Darling, and Bruce Wheeler '70 provide experience to the SAEIors two weeks ago. Steve Schroeder '67, Tom Chen '68, and Jim Reader '67-episodic moves in rain, winds, and mud.

The second half, however, was a different story. UNH began an offensive surge which they were unable to contain. To add heartache to misery, Tech's goalie, John Schramm with singles targets in the third period and did not play for the rest of the game. Harry Turner replaced Gerth, but UNH's shooting was a little too accurate.

Frank Manning scored Tech's first goal early in the third period. He was assisted on the goal by John Panzer. Tech then added two more goals by the end of the third period. The final score was UNH 9, MIT 2. The fourth period was almost nil size to their advantage. Don Rutherford '68, Jack Mandle '68, and Bruce Wheeler '70 provide experience to the SAEIors two weeks ago. Steve Schroeder '67, Tom Chen '68, and Jim Reader '67-episodic moves in rain, winds, and mud.

East '90 were the only Beavers who managed to break even. Rick Marcus '68 fill in for holding Tom Thomas '70.

This afternoon the team will fire a practice round on the course, and in the late afternoon will return for the fall league. Their opponents will be either other survivors of last year's elimination round. Coach Reiman is hoping that his charges can repeat the 300 they tied for 3rd place in the fall of 1970.