where will you be 5 years from now?

In as good a spot as you are today? What is that? What are the things up on things? Intensely acquainted with the state of the art in your field of study?
Or will you (through no fault of your own) be dangerously close to the brink of obsolescence?
Could happen. Often does.
Which is one good reason to consider a career at MITRE.

MITRE is pioneering in the design and engineering of complex information, sensor, command, control and communications systems for the United States Government.
Our assignments include multidisciplinary electronic systems as the NORAD Combat Operations Center the Backup Interceptor Command System for SAGE, and the Hermes Military Command System (HMCS).

These projects represent the most important systems of our times. They require the most advanced thinking on a broad range of scientific problems and the technologies needed to solve them.

As a member of the MITRE team, you'll be working in an atmosphere of scientific inquiry, with the prestige and power of the MITRE Organization, and in associations of outstanding reputation, with the opportunity to make

In original contribution to your area of interest in an environment like this, you're not talking how far you can go. But this much is certain. You'll not be left out, looked, and you can't be overpaid. Salary? Benefits? They're competitive, of course. Moreover, we have an excellent Educational Assistance and Staff Scholar Program.

Many MITRE employees presently attend nearby educational institutions including Harvard, Boston University, Boston College, Brandeis, Northeastern, MIT, and Tufts.
Depending on your interests, qualifications and current openings, you may start with one of the following, or other, departments:

System Planning and Engineering
Air and Missile Defense Systems
Systems Analysis
Air Traffic Systems
Tactical Systems
Strategic Systems
Range Instrumentation
Information Sciences

A button-down in a basket weave. (Something old, something new)

This Arrow shirt gives you best of both worlds. (1) A long-pointed collar roll in the most authentic tradition. (2) A husky, strong basket weave that updates ordinary Oxford. For other interesting features, check the two-way bottom back pleat and back collar button. Lots of stripes, solids and whites.

"Sanforized" labeled. $5.00.
