Rackemmen blank Adelphi, 9-0; Tantivit leads engineer squad

By Roger Dean

MIT’s varsity squash team opened its 1966-67 season Wednesday night with an overwhelming 5-0 victory over Adelphi. The match, called by Edward Crocker and captained by the number one man, Cliff Tantivit, 1968, had too much overall strength and depth for the Panthers. Each man won his match by 15-3 scores.

The match began with Clive playing Adelphi’s number one man, Sue Goldstein, and after a close opening game in which Clive squeaked out a 13-12 victory, he took control and won the net two, 13-5, 13-11. The Beaver’s number three man, Ken Wong, 1968, and number nine man, Ralph Brewer, 1968, each won their matches with scores of 15-2, 15-4, and 15-3, 15-5 respectively.

Number five man, Phil Hoggan, 1968, then won which turned out to be the closest match of the night, 13-11, 13-12, 13-10. Elspeth Smyth, 1968, playing in the number seven slot, assured MIT of a victory with a 15-3, 15-8, 15-7 win over the final match of the night, 15-10, 15-9, 15-4.

The sixth contest pitted Eric Ow, 1967, number two man for the

SAE leads IM standings

By Beck Pfluger

Figures released today show SAE’s No. 1 men places in the IM points table standings. The SAE’s 26 points give them a 26 point lead over second place Beta Theta Pi. The SAE men come from a first and ninth place finish in the IM football competition supplemented by a second place finish in wrestling, twelfth in cross-country and twentieth in tennis.

The Betas 25 points is the result of a second place finish in football, seventh in cross-country and first and eighteen place finish in wrestling.

Phi Delta, Theta Chi, Lambda Chi, and Alpha Rho round out the top ten list.

The IM Hockey action this week, SAE continued their domination of the A league just where they found themselves last week. The Peterson point system will be used throughout with additional 15 points being given for team game victories. 25 points will be awarded to a team if it has the greater total number of points but has won only one game.
