An "Appreciation Award" has been presented by the Western Electric Fund to MIT in recognition of outstanding efforts in furthering academic excellence and meeting the educational needs of a free society. In recognition of PSSC, the award, which was accompanied by a $5,000 check, was given to Professor Zacharias. The award was presented by J. W. Abbott, Jr., of Western Electric, from the left are Bruce Harriman of NET&T, Dr. Jerome B. Wiesner, and Dr. Jerrold R. Zacharias.

Selective Service test applications must be postmarked by Friday, April 8, 1967. Applications for the March 31 test and April 8 test may be sent to the College Qualifications Test. Applications for the March 31 test must be sent to Selective Service Examining Section, Educational Testing Service, Box 988, Princeton, New Jersey 08540. The April exam will not be offered at MIT, so students wishing to take the test must choose another test site.
