Last year, thousands of lawyers, bankers, accountants, engineers, doctors and businessmen went back to college.

And not just for the football games.

We'd like to clear up what appears to be a misunderstanding. It is somewhat popular on campus to decry a business career on the grounds that you stop learning once you start working for Chichi Nuts & Bolts.

That idea is groundless. We can't speak for Chichi, but we can for ourselves—Western Electric, the manufacturing and supply unit of the Bell System. Employees pursue degrees while working. The Tuition Refund Plan lets employees pursue degrees while working. The state of the art, never static, is where the action is.

At Western Electric, what's happening is the excitement and satisfaction of continued learning. If this happens to appeal to you, no matter what degree you're aiming for, check us out. And grab a piece of the action.

Clay Satow '68 (#7) raises his stick in triumph as Denis Coleman '68 skates away from scoring Tech's first goal against Babson. Despite the early 1-0 lead, the skaters lost, 6-4 as Babson scored 5 goals in the final period.

By Bill Steele

The varsity skaters dropped their seventh and eighth games of the season last weekend, losing at Bowdoin Saturday night and to Babson College here last Thursday. The team's record now stands at 6-4.

At Bowdoin, the icemen faced probably their strongest competition of the season. Their lines were big as well as fast, and peppered goalie Carl Bryant '67 with 18 shots in the first period, scoring five. Bill Cadogan '68 put the first goal into the nets, with Scott Rhobes '68 and Mike Ziolk '67 getting assists. Tech's only other goal was scored by Dee Bracchi '67, with Mike Nesbitt '69 and Larry Hall '67 assisting. But, meanwhile, Bowdoin knocked in six more, upping the final score to 6-1.

Babson wins, 6-4

At home Thursday night MIT again faced Babson, the team which defeated us 5-1 in the MIT tournament, and again they were greated by a crowd of almost 200 Babson supporters. The Techmen skated hard and seemed set on revenge. After fifteen minutes of good offensive play by the whole team, Dante Coleman '68 fired the first goat into the nets, with Mike Nesch '69 and Mike Zuba '67 assisting. Tech's goalie Carl Bryant '67 with 20 shots to preserve the 2-0 lead heading into the final period.

In the third period, however, Babson broke loose. Sonny Chambotren scored twice in the first five minutes and his teammates rifled in four more goals in quick succession. Bracchi and Coleman each scored for Tech, but the final score was 6-4. MIT meets Babson here again tonight, so let's not allow the Babson fans to outnumber us at our own rink.

ANSWERS to the AC Career Analogy on page 6:

T I M E
A N A V I N G
U K E E
L L O

If you haven't yet found the answer to choosing your own career, consider the unusual opportunities offered by AC.

Take another close look at our ad on page 6 Then let's hear from you.