Talking Rock

By Don Davis

Of the top selling albums currently on the market, there are a few I would classify as being "a" sell-out albums. Of these albums, the ten which have been in the top 10 for the most weeks are:

1. Best of Herman's Hermits
2. Best of the Animals
3. You Can Believe Your Eyes and Ears - Mama's
4. Big Hits - Rolling Stones
5. The Young Rascals
6. Midnight Ride - Paul Revere & the Raiders
7. Afterneath - Rolling Stones
8. Best of the Beach Boys,

By Carl Abramson

This picture is funny. It is absurd, and gratefully pokes fun at the world of big business without the effectiveness of satire. But more than anything else, it is a film of the original musical.

SIMILAR SNAPSHOTS

No attempt has been made to disguise or deviate from the techniques which kept the play on Broadway and it was put on at 'The Palater Palace. In fact, the feeling that it is a play often develops. This is caused, at least in part, by the chorography, which is excellent and amusing.

The story is based on the novel by Horace Arnold. It is the tale of a young window washer who decides one bright morning that he can be a success. Using a copy of 'How to Succeed in Business' as his Bible, J. Pierpont Finch amazingly floats to the top of the sales.
