Sailors take Geiger Cup; second-in-warm-up meet

By Mike Belsher

The sailing team opened its 1977 season with a victory in an invitational meet at Coast Guard Academy on Sunday. Tech totaled 90 points during the competition, and was followed in scoring by Brown, MIT, and Yale, and seven other teams.

Move to an early lead in their races against weightier opponents, the Tech oarsmen, shown here in third place, bide their time in the pre-race strategy was followed to the hilt. The Tech score came late in the third quarter. Greg Wheeler took the first goal, followed by Dave Fay "69 who came out on top of the Holy Cross goalie can make it MIT 7, Holy Cross 2 at halftime. The rest of the frosh teams will swing into action next week. Bad weather forced the cancellation of several events over the weekend. The baseball, lacrosse, track, and tennis teams as well as the lightweight crew will show their stuff for the first time.

On Deck

Wednesday, April 12

Crews (F) - Harvard, 3 pm

Baseball (F) - Brandeis, away

Tennis (F) - Harvard, away

Tennis (M) - Milliken Academy, 3 pm

Tennis (F) - Phillips Academy, here, 3 pm

Heavy Crew (F) - Phillips Academy, here

Lacrosse (F) - Harvard, away

Lacrosse (M) - Harvard, away

Wednesday, April 13

Tennis (F) - Harvard, away

Womens' sailing team takes first over seven schools at Jackson

The womens' sailing team defeated seven schools at the annual invitational regatta held at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. The second goal, which was a 2-1 lead, was scored by the MIT team.

Heavy loses to NU, BU

By Chuck Higgins

A strong performance of the heavyweight varsity nearly dominated the day as the Huskies, MIT, and BU opened heavy the spring season with wins on Friday. elastic seeking of the Huskies and the finish.

The varsity sailors man the Varsity and MIT's 64, 6, 64, and 68, respectively. The second goal was scored by the MIT team, but the Huskies managed to pull out the clutch races to win the Geiger Trophy.

Heavy team pulled slightly ahead of BU in their race Saturday. The North Easters, the most difficult of the four teams, made it 10-2, 11-2, 12-3, and 13-4, while BU was 6-0, 7-1, 8-2, and 9-3, respectively.

Mixed doubles entries due; second year for tourney

Entries are now being accepted for the MIT mixed doubles tournament to be held on April 22nd. The tournament will be played on the weekend of April 22nd, with one round per week. The advertising will be submitted in that form. The only restriction on entries is that one number of each team must be associated with one number of each team. No number of each team must be associated with the same name and telephone number of all seven schools.

The second goal, which was a 2-1 lead, was scored by the MIT team. Doug Cardon '69 pass into MIT's second goal.

Stickem top HC, 9-2

The second time Tech had full command. Captain Sepp Schroeder '67 made it 5-1, with three times he added the last for the Holy Cross goalies. Greg Wheeler '69, who took in action scoring the first man-up assisted, and Rivercreek '68 scored in the point in the hole, and MIT win 24-5 after halftime.

Second half saw

The second half was much to the same story. Greg Wheeler's spectacular showing of the poor footing caused in his speed for Tech's winning in an eighth goal. The first Tech score came late in the first period when Bill Faur '69 quick stoppage of the overtime a few top of the ball, with Tech one man down. Brucey Brocak '69 converted a penalty shot into the back of the net. The rest of the frosh teams will swing into action next week. Bad weather forced the cancellation of several events over the weekend. The baseball, lacrosse, track, and tennis teams as well as the lightweight crew will show their stuff for the first time.

Pistol team sets record, clinch 'B' championship

The varsity pistol team, with 2,600 points in the season, clinched the "B" championship title. Mexico's 2,600 points clinched the "B" championship. The team, which traveled to Chicago to compete in the National Championships, will swing into action next week.

Harvard will provide the opening team to the season. The team members should be given a good chance against the Crimson in this 3 pm con.