President Johnson, alumni appear at Assembly Ball

The 33rd Annual Francis A. Wyler Assembly Ball, as the most elegant social event on campus, was presented last Friday evening by the Student Activities Council. The Assembly was attended by nearly 200 alumni. Among them were two guests of honor, who included President and Mrs. Johnson, and many other well-known members of the faculty and administration, several alumni, some of whom traveled a considerable distance to be present, and students both as on and off the staff.

The ball featured dancing to the music of Don Russell and his orchestra, the grand promenade at midnight, and entertainment presentations at intervals throughout the evening. First came a June Hymn, directed by Prof. Roy Lamson on clarinet, Pedemone Warren Robert on piano, and Mr. Guelford Caroll on cello.

Engineering honors hold social for preelection pledges

The Lodbell Dining Room of the Student Center will be the scene of the Eta Kappa Nu (Electrical Engineering Honor Society), with Prof. Roy Lamson on piano, and all events on campus with Prof. Roy Lamson on piano, and all events on campus, is presented as the most elegant social event of the year.

Gibert & Sullivan Society performs 'The Mikado'

Finestory in an oriental vein was the theme of the Gilbert and Sullivan Society's "The Mikado," to be presented tonight and tomorrow night at 8:30 p.m. in Kresge Auditorium. A special children's performance will be presented tomorrow in 2:30 in connection with Open House, which is expected to attract some 30,000 visitors. Children, accompanied by parent or teacher will be admitted free and high school students will be admitted for 50c.

Special stage and costumes at the direction of Ron Mallin, who will direct the show, under the direction of the Society's original interpretation. The chorus of twenty-four boys is being directed by Eunice Heimes, a course VI senior, and Stephen Weinberg, a course VIII sophomore, is musical director.

Wilson wins white rabbit preelection pledges

By Steve Balk

Wilson won the white rabbit preelection pledge by a large margin over the number of Tech's women's sailing team, as the White Club travels to Hanover, New Hampshire, to compete in a regatta on the Mascoma River. Tech's paddlers were unfamiliar with the river and came away with several honors. Ed Mattison placed eighth with a time of 23:48.0. Ed Mattison placed eighth with a time of 23:48.0. A special graduate, Tom Wilson '67 set a record on the northward leg with a time of 23:48.0.

Cliffies top coeds in URI regatta

Redcliffe proved to be too much for Tech's women's sailing team last Sunday at the University of Rhode Island in a one-divisional regatta. The Tech sailors were sailing against Redcliffe, but with one point. Taking the helm for the coeds were Ruth McDowell '67 and Alice Smith '67. The final scores: Redcliffe 45, MIT 43, Jacksons 41, Wednesday 37, Old Town 36, Old College 22, and Northeastern 19.

Next weekend the Tech paddlers will journey to the West River in Jamestown, Vermont, to compete in the New England Slalom. Wilkins and Mattison are looking forward to the event, as the World Championship team will be decided.

For college drop-ins: special weekend rate

Date driving up for the Big Bash? Old prep school roommate coming to the campus? Broderick jumping down from Dartmouth for the weekend? Six is pending in a Harvard Square Happening! Great! Put them in style for only $8.50 (single) per night on weekend nights at the Cambridge Charter House. There's wonderful food in our Five Chateaux Restaurant and our Thru-Cafe Restaurant. An integral lounge, Free parking. Delightful atmosphere. And the town's most wonderful view of the Charles, Beacon Hill, and the Boston Skyline.

All for only $8.50 per night, student weekend rate. Enjoy your appreciating low rate. Wards have to do is show some form of college identification when registering. Really, now, isn't that good your friends can find us at Cambridge Charter House and can arrange your friends apartment to special offer!