Military Day convection

ROTC to present awards

The annual Military Day exercises will be held that afternoon at 4 pm in the Armory. Fifty awards will be presented to members of the three ROTC units on campus, following a review of the corps.

President Howard Johnson will be the reviewing official, and will present three of the awards: the General Leslie Groves Award to Cadet Richard A. Simpson '67; the Army Superior Cadet Awards to Colonel Richard A. Simpson '67, Raymond L. Bowman '68, and Michael McMahon '68; the Professor of Naval Science Award, to Midshipman Stephen Waters '67, the Army Superior Cadet Awards, to Colonel Herbert R. Schuitz VI, AFROTC.

Other major awards, and their recipients, are: the United States Naval Institute Award, to Midshipman Stephen Waters '67; the Army Superior Cadet Awards, to Colonels Richard A. Simpson '67, Raymond L. Bowman '68, and Michael McMahon '68; the Professor of Naval Science Award, to Midshipman Stephen Waters '67, the Army Superior Cadet Awards, to Colonel Herbert R. Schuitz VI, AFROTC.

DEFERRING GRADUATE SCHOOL?

The Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory likes to staff its worldwide network of research stations with men of unusual intelligence and ability. The trouble is, of course, that most such men are over-sold or already spoken for by one or another of the postmo tons. The men we send to Spade, P. in Ethiope and elsewhere must have career plans which are still nago table, or be willing at least to acquire some research experience for a year or two while putting away funds for graduate school. For those who stay, there are broad opportunities for advancement as well.

If you are available and a specialist in electronics, astronomy or physics, or a bright, flexible nonspecialist in anything, contact us through your placement office or call or write to Dr. W. C. Tingle, Personnel Administrator, (617) 664-7910.

"Cheer up, No. 51. Anyone can trip over 3rd base. But thanks to your close Norelco shave, you looked marvelous doing it."

"I guess you’re right, Miss Swinging Campus Queen. Those 18 amazing rotary blades, 3 floating Microgroove heads, that sideburn trimmer, coll-cord and on/off switch sure saved the day for me!"

The Norelco Rechargeable 40C. A single charge delivers twice as many shaves as any other rechargeable. Works without a plug. Shaves so close, you dare to match it with a razor blade. Pop-up trimmer, too. The Norelco Cordless 'Flip-Top' 20B (not shown) shaves anywhere on just 4 penlight batteries. Now with convenient battery ejector. Micro:groove heads and rotary blades. Snap-open wallet with mirror.
