Golfers down Bowdoin 4-3; Kast, McMahan shoot 72

By Steve Weber

In their best outing in the history of the New England championships, the Tech golf team defeated the Bowdoin team 4-3 on Saturday. The victory was achieved by Greg Kay '90 and Mike Weiss '86 in the first round, and Bill McMahan '87 and Steve Wall '89 in the second. With the win, the Tech team improved its record to 5-1 in the tournament.

The first game was won by Greg Kay, who defeated Bowdoin's John Conboy with a score of 65, 64. Kay's performance was aided by three birdies, two on the back nine. The second game was won by Mike Weiss, who defeated Bowdoin's John Crowther with a score of 62, 63. Weiss's performance was aided by three birdies, two on the back nine. The third game was won by Bill McMahan, who defeated Bowdoin's John Conboy with a score of 66, 62. McMahan's performance was aided by three birdies, two on the back nine. The fourth game was won by Steve Wall, who defeated Bowdoin's John Crowther with a score of 67, 62. Wall's performance was aided by three birdies, two on the back nine.

Tech racketsmen win two

By Jon Stein

The tennis squad boosted its season record to an even 6-6 with a victory over Trinity last week. At home Thursday the team remained perfect at home with a victory over Stony Brook.

The first game of the day was won by Greg Kay, 6-1, 6-3. Kay's performance was aided by three birdies, two on the back nine. The second game was won by Mike Weiss, who defeated Bowdoin's John Crowther with a score of 62, 63. Weiss's performance was aided by three birdies, two on the back nine. The third game was won by Bill McMahan, who defeated Bowdoin's John Conboy with a score of 65, 64. McMahan's performance was aided by three birdies, two on the back nine. The fourth game was won by Steve Wall, who defeated Bowdoin's John Crowther with a score of 66, 62. Wall's performance was aided by three birdies, two on the back nine.

Tom Wilson wins white water race

Last weekend was a big one for the MIT White Water Team. While most of the club practiced for the upcoming boating season on the Great River, Tom Wilson, who has been training for the past four years, finally opened up with a 9.90 home run against Bowdoin. The team was looking for a win, and the result was a 7-6 victory. Wilson's performance was aided by three birdies, two on the back nine. The second game was won by Mike McMahon, who defeated Bowdoin's John Crowther with a score of 67, 62. McMahon's performance was aided by three birdies, two on the back nine. The third game was won by Steve Wall, who defeated Bowdoin's John Crowther with a score of 65, 64. Wall's performance was aided by three birdies, two on the back nine. The fourth game was won by Greg Kay, who defeated Bowdoin's John Conboy with a score of 66, 62. Kay's performance was aided by three birdies, two on the back nine.

The team's victory over Bowdoin was a big morale booster for the team, who are looking forward to the upcoming season.

Crews trounce Dartmouth, Navy

By Tony Linn

Racing into a slight headwind and choppy waters, the Tech oarsmen emerged sound in a 7-6 victory over Dartmouth and Navy at the Saratoga Yacht Club. The win was the fourth straight for the Engineers, who are now 4-0 in the season.

The first game was won by Greg Kay, who defeated Bowdoin's John Conboy with a score of 65, 64. Kay's performance was aided by three birdies, two on the back nine. The second game was won by Mike Weiss, who defeated Bowdoin's John Crowther with a score of 62, 63. Weiss's performance was aided by three birdies, two on the back nine. The third game was won by Bill McMahan, who defeated Bowdoin's John Conboy with a score of 66, 62. McMahan's performance was aided by three birdies, two on the back nine. The fourth game was won by Steve Wall, who defeated Bowdoin's John Crowther with a score of 67, 62. Wall's performance was aided by three birdies, two on the back nine.

Tech lightweight crews finished second in a close match for MIT, who are currently in second place in the season.

The Tech lightweight crews finished second in a close match for MIT, who are currently in second place in the season.

The Tech lightweight crews finished second in a close match for MIT, who are currently in second place in the season.