21.02$ symposium covers LA

By Ned Missig

New perspectives on the racial problems of the US and the city of Los Angeles in particular were presented to freshman humanities students on the second night of the Course XXI Los Angeles Symposium Wednesday.

The first speaker was Mr. Ross Ellis, a doctoral candidate at UCLA and a teacher at Pitzer Coll. Mr. Ellis is a Negro who was born and raised in Watts with a few comments on Negroes. Mr. Ellis described his remarks on Watts with a few comments on California society in general. Mr. Ellis is a Negro who was born and raised in Watts with a few comments on Negroes. Mr. Ellis described his remarks on Watts with a few comments on California society in general.

Auto stolen from Tech senior kills BU student

Harvey Golumb, 18, had his car stolen sometime after 8 pm by three youths from Roxbury, all under 17, and on probation for auto theft. Shortly thereafter Golumb's car struck and killed a BU student on a bicycle.

The car, a '68 Chevette, was found parked in a telephone pole and totally demolished. The three boys were booked on suspicion of manslaughter by the Boston Police.

Do white liberals have a realistic view of integrated education? watch THE COLEMAN REPORT

Daniel P. Moynihan, Director, Harvard-M.I.T. Joint Center on Urban Affairs

Thomas Pettitgrew Asst. Prof. Social Psychology, Harvard

Wednesday, May 17, 8:00 p.m.

WGBH-TV 2

See for yourself why the Coleman Report has provoked a crescendo of debate in the academic world.

RENT YOUR CAP & GOWN

Rent your Cap and Gown (and Hood) at the Coop. Orders are being taken now, and to insure delivery on time, please order before June 3. No deposit is required.

BACHELORS $3.50 (Cap & Gown)

MASTERS $4.00 (Cap & Gown)

DOCTORS $4.50 (Cap & Gown)

Hood $4.50 extra

THE TECH COOP

84 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, Mass. 02139

GT+383=NEW DART GTS.