FRESH ORIENTATION

glimpse of activities from sports to politics to publications.

Most freshmen and organizers felt that orientation was effective. At Whitsby Hall, President, felt that orientation committee was "very, very pleased," while Karla Hurst '68, McCormick Hall President, felt that orientation made freshmen feel that the Institute cared.

Although one freshman felt "like a cog in a machine," a more typical comment was "I was much better oriented than I expected to be."
