Rock-and-roll artist Chuck Berry will be the featured entertainer for Saturday night of JP.

Do you buy a shirt or a label?

If you're looking for a short-sleeved mustard shirt with a button-down collar, that's a shirt. But if you've checked the label, because a good label gives you a good idea of what the shirt is rolled, tapered, and pleated in the right places. And it is styled to last. The label on this short-sleeved button down says "Cam Laude" Oxford. It tells you the shirt is Perma-Tone so it won't wrinkle.

See this classic shirt and our complete range of ARROW styles for business and college wear at THE TECH COOP.

Regular hours: 8:30-5:30 Monday - Saturday.
Free Parking. On Saturdays at 3 spacious parking areas adjacent to the Student Center.

Newly renamed in honor of Horace Sayford Ford, this building houses a large portion of the administrative staff of the Institute. Mr. Ford served as Bursar and Treasurer of the MIT Corporation. It now houses more than twenty offices and 750 employees. A portion of the building is currently leased to commercial firms and will be redeveloped for Institute use during the next several years.

The Horace S. Ford building is the second largest building in the Institute.
