Headquarters

Central War Surplus
433 MASS. AVE., Central Square Cambridge

ENSEMBLES of the
BOSTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA
Presented in cooperation with the New England Conservatory
JORDAN HALL
MONDAY, DEC. 4 — 8:30
Boston Symphony String Trio with Richard Goods, Violinist
MOZART Piano Quartet
in E-flat K. 493
MARTINU Two Madrigals
for Violin and Viola
BRAHMS Piano Trio
in B Major Op. 8
Tickets (each concert)
$1.50, $2.50, $3, $4, $5.
JORDAN HALL
BOX OFFICE
30 Gainsborough St., Boston
Tel. 536-2412

Christmas in California
- Speed your vacation in Cali-
- fornia this year
- Board a Non-Stop Jet
- $200.00 over regular air fare
- Save $20 over regular air fare
- End your trip in style
- Call PARKER TRAVEL BUREAU
  (opp. BU 728 Comm. Ave., 544-4927 — CO 6-4210)
  NOV — Reservations are limited to reserve your seat now
  min. stay 10 days

The most famous purveyors of the West Coast acid-rock sound will appear at the Back Bay The-
- ater Saturday night as the Ameri-
- can Airplane gives concerts at
- 7:30 and 9:30. Led by singers
- Marty Balin and Grace Slick who
- wrote most of the group's materi-
- al, the Airplane has had hit sin-
- gles in "Somebody to Love" and "White Rabbit," as well as two successful albums. Their instru-
- mental sound is generally recog-
- nized as the best among contem-
- porary rock groups.

The Dave Brubeck Quartet will perform Friday at 8:30 pm at the Back Bay Theatre. Sponsored by Sigma Phi Epsilon, the last quartet will feature original works. The announced group will be breaking up after the first of the year so this concert will be one of their last. Tickets are available in the Lobby of Building 10 or at the Back Bay Theatre.

On Sunday the MIT Symphony Orchestra will have as guest solo-
- ist Enrico Alberts, well-known contralto. A resident of Lexington, Miss Alberts has appeared with the Boston Symphony Orchestra, at Tanglewood and with the Bos-
- ton Opera Company. Miss Alberts will join the orchestra in a pro-
- gram which includes Brahms' Symphony No. 1.

List of concerts to be in-
- cluded in the MBA Schedule are:
- "The Astronaut," are
- being performed through a-
- nine-channel speaker system
- ing "The Earth," "The Em-
- ergency Landing," and a cor-
- rection of electronic speech process-
- ing entitled, "The Astronaut," are
- of the innovations being de-
- scribed by Dr. Fritz Winckel, Vis-
- ing Professor of Music.

The most famous purveyors of the West Coast acid-rock sound will appear at the Back Bay The-
- ater Saturday night as the Ameri-
- can Airplane gives concerts at
- 7:30 and 9:30. Led by singers
- Marty Balin and Grace Slick who
- wrote most of the group's materi-
- al, the Airplane has had hit sin-
- gles in "Somebody to Love" and "White Rabbit," as well as two successful albums. Their instru-
- mental sound is generally recog-
- nized as the best among contem-
- porary rock groups.

The Dave Brubeck Quartet will perform Friday at 8:30 pm at the Back Bay Theatre. Sponsored by Sigma Phi Epsilon, the last quartet will feature original works. The announced group will be breaking up after the first of the year so this concert will be one of their last. Tickets are available in the Lobby of Building 10 or at the Back Bay Theatre.

On Sunday the MIT Symphony Orchestra will have as guest solo-
- ist Enrico Alberts, well-known contralto. A resident of Lexington, Miss Alberts has appeared with the Boston Symphony Orchestra, at Tanglewood and with the Bos-
- ton Opera Company. Miss Alberts will join the orchestra in a pro-
- gram which includes Brahms' Symphony No. 1.

List of concerts to be in-
- cluded in the MBA Schedule are:
- "The Astronaut," are
- being performed through a-
- nine-channel speaker system
- ing "The Earth," "The Em-
- ergency Landing," and a cor-
- rection of electronic speech process-
- ing entitled, "The Astronaut," are
- of the innovations being de-
- scribed by Dr. Fritz Winckel, Vis-
- ing Professor of Music.