Mermen hope to improve on last year’s 9-3 mark

By Jeff Goodman

Picked with the loss of only two seniors, Coach Charlie Batter-man’s swimmers started stronger than ever. The addition of last year’s freshman team to the varsity lineup will add depth to the team.

The swimmers will show great strength in the events with Captain John McFarren ’68 and Bill Stage. In the 200 backstroke Brenfenbrenner ’67 will provide a powerful one-two punch.

Dilly had finned third in the New Englands in this current year. In the breaststroke, the engineer school record holder Luis Clare ’69 perhaps one of the best swimmers ever at MIT. Larry Preston ’68 and Tom Meier will be a formidable two-pounder in the breaststroke for the upcoming season.
