Last weekend opened the winter sports schedule, and several of the squads gave glimpses of what could be promising seasons, although first-time performances were not that impressive.

The swimming team provided the best showing as they were edged by the Bowdoin squad leading through most of the meet. The MIT squad was passed only in the final event, the 400 yard freestyle relay. This put the event.

The swimming team provided an unusual lack of height. The rest of the squad is accordingly smaller, providing an unusual lack of height. Tech Lefebvre was starting guard and when you stay.

Rich Lefebvre was starting guard and went on to win the game. Wesleyan pulled far ahead in what appeared to be a close basketball game, and went on to beat the engineers, 61-46.

With 2/10 minute remaining in the opening half, the Wesleyans held only a 23-20 margin, but shortly afterwards they found the range and ran off two straight points while keeping Tech scoreless. They held on to their lead and went on to win the game.

drinking the beer.

You hear some people say there shouldn't be any head at all. They say phooey on the foam...where's the beer? They shouldn't. Anyway, not when the beer is Beechwood Aged Bud. Budweiser is brewed so it will kick up a good head of foam. Those little bubbles add to the taste, the smoothness, and the drinkability. So pour your Bud with about an inch-and-a-half collar. Two inches if it's a tall glass. Now let the foam tickle your nose...and your taste. That's the answer.

How about foam on your beer?
