Fly to the most places at 50% off on United Air Lines.

Join United’s 12-21 Club

United Air Lines

12-21 Club Youth Fare Application

If you're under 22 years of age, United’s 12-21 Club lets you fly with us for half the price of a regular jet coach ticket.

Why United? Because we have more seats on more flights to more places than anyone else.

Take this application along with $3.00 to any United ticket office, or mail it to the address on the blank. Your card will be mailed to you shortly.

You can't reserve a seat, but you can fly at half-fare when space is available, and after military stand-byes have boarded. For information on United’s 12-21 Club, contact your campus representative, Pasvo Pyykkonen.

Start living it up (at a happy half-fare) in the friendly skies of United.

"They fly everywhere! I love thought of going."

For assistance, information, and reservations, contact United at 482-7900.

(Continued from Page 1)

Final 1968 cost estimates result in tuition increase despite assets

Although direct academic expenses have more than tripled since 1950, "institutional efforts are increasing MIT's funds from sources other than tuition." As a result, total tuition income can run around $5,000,000 below academic expenses last year. "Unfortunately, as we have projected our costs for 1969 and beyond, income from these sources will not be enough to meet all the rising educational expenses of the Institute. In the face of this gap between expenses and income, increase in tuition is the only alternative."

To advance the cause of United’s 12-21 Club, any student can profit by the "flying" of the United Air Lines. The Club lets you fly with us for half the price of a flight, as well as for the price of a flight. Club lets you fly with us for half the price of a flight when space is available.

You can reserve a seat, but you can fly at half-fare when space is available, and after military stand-byes have boarded. For information on United’s 12-21 Club, contact your campus representative, Paavo Pyykkonen.

"They fly everywhere! I love thought of going."

For assistance, information, and reservations, contact United at 482-7900.

(Continued from Page 1)

Final 1968 cost estimates result in tuition increase despite assets

Although direct academic expenses have more than tripled since 1950, "institutional efforts are increasing MIT's funds from sources other than tuition." As a result, total tuition income can run around $5,000,000 below academic expenses last year. "Unfortunately, as we have projected our costs for 1969 and beyond, income from these sources will not be enough to meet all the rising educational expenses of the Institute. In the face of this gap between expenses and income, increase in tuition is the only alternative."

To advance the cause of United’s 12-21 Club, any student can profit by the "flying" of the United Air Lines. The Club lets you fly with us for half the price of a flight, as well as for the price of a flight. Club lets you fly with us for half the price of a flight when space is available.

You can reserve a seat, but you can fly at half-fare when space is available, and after military stand-byes have boarded. For information on United’s 12-21 Club, contact your campus representative, Paavo Pyykkonen.

"They fly everywhere! I love thought of going."

For assistance, information, and reservations, contact United at 482-7900.

(Continued from Page 1)

Final 1968 cost estimates result in tuition increase despite assets

Although direct academic expenses have more than tripled since 1950, "institutional efforts are increasing MIT's funds from sources other than tuition." As a result, total tuition income can run around $5,000,000 below academic expenses last year. "Unfortunately, as we have projected our costs for 1969 and beyond, income from these sources will not be enough to meet all the rising educational expenses of the Institute. In the face of this gap between expenses and income, increase in tuition is the only alternative."

To advance the cause of United’s 12-21 Club, any student can profit by the "flying" of the United Air Lines. The Club lets you fly with us for half the price of a flight, as well as for the price of a flight. Club lets you fly with us for half the price of a flight when space is available.

You can reserve a seat, but you can fly at half-fare when space is available, and after military stand-byes have boarded. For information on United’s 12-21 Club, contact your campus representative, Paavo Pyykkonen.

"They fly everywhere! I love thought of going."

For assistance, information, and reservations, contact United at 482-7900.

(Continued from Page 1)

Final 1968 cost estimates result in tuition increase despite assets

Although direct academic expenses have more than tripled since 1950, "institutional efforts are increasing MIT's funds from sources other than tuition." As a result, total tuition income can run around $5,000,000 below academic expenses last year. "Unfortunately, as we have projected our costs for 1969 and beyond, income from these sources will not be enough to meet all the rising educational expenses of the Institute. In the face of this gap between expenses and income, increase in tuition is the only alternative."

To advance the cause of United’s 12-21 Club, any student can profit by the "flying" of the United Air Lines. The Club lets you fly with us for half the price of a flight, as well as for the price of a flight. Club lets you fly with us for half the price of a flight when space is available.

You can reserve a seat, but you can fly at half-fare when space is available, and after military stand-byes have boarded. For information on United’s 12-21 Club, contact your campus representative, Paavo Pyykkonen.

"They fly everywhere! I love thought of going."

For assistance, information, and reservations, contact United at 482-7900.