Tech pistol team places second in the NIS

The MIT pistol team fell victim to Coast Guard Saturday, coming in second in the National Intercollegiate Championships held at Coast Guard. The engineers were unable to find the mark, and by the time the final tally was taken, Coast Guard held a clean margin of 27 points.

Coast Guard's winning score was 1182, with Tech coming in at 1099. The engineers actually took two places in the meet, as an up-and-coming JV squad took a very close third place with 1029. Boston University came in fourth with 928.

Swanson leads team

Captain Eddie Busick '68 led the engineer squad with a 277 out of a possible 300. Dennis Swanson '69 was a close second with 275, taking second place with 260 and 253 respectively.

In the individual rounds Swanson took second, falling only two points short of the 850 scored by Troux of Coast Guard. Placing fourth was Busick, shooting an 840 out of a possible 900.

If your home country is listed here and you're going back after graduation, IBM would like to talk with you February 28th or 29th.

IBM's World Trade Corporation has immediate openings for citizens of these countries in two career areas: Marketing and Computer Applications.

We're looking for bright, ambitious graduates to fill these positions. If you're getting a degree and want to return to your home country, we'd like to talk with you.

A career with IBM puts you in the world's fastest growing major industry: information handling and control. You can help our customers put computers to work solving problems in such areas as government, business, medicine and education.

What to do next

Sound interesting? Then sign up for an interview at your placement office even if you're headed for graduate school.

If you can't arrange a campus interview, send an outline of your interests and educational background to Mr. Robert A. Dumon, IBM World Trade Corporation, 821 United Nations Plaza, New York, New York 10017.