Melanson only victor

Penn downs racquetmen

By Roger Soper

The University of Pennsylvania played host to the varsity squash team of Reed College on Monday, Feb. 21. The meet was not too exciting, as the Baziques managed to maintain the lead, posting wins in all the singles but one. Four of the five matches were played on the number one court, the only one occupied by the visiting team. The only win for the Baziques came in the number three slot. Melanson easily handled Han, 15-3, for his team's lone victory. The final score was 4-1.

Cagers top Catholic U; Janssen hits 13 of 19

By Dan Swift

The Tech cagers easily dispatched Catholic University by a score of 84-51, bringing the season record to 14-4. It was a team effort as all five Tech starters were in double figures, and the bench contributed 28 points. Jim Bowerbank and Greg Capozzi tied for team high with 16 points, while Joe Wilson added 13. The Tech starts hit 50 percent of their shots, and the bench came through with its best performance of the season to 52-28.

Swimmers catch Williams with pants down, 50-45

By Jeff Goodman

Tech swimmers defeated an embattled Williams team 50-45, Saturday, at Williams. In front of a capacity crowd, Williams Nichols lost his last match of the final, 10 yard freestyle relay. While trying to pull his pants up, Nichols fell behind to give the engineers the relay and the meet. The 400 yard medley relay team of Don Riley, Larry Preston '68, Jim Bronreabrenner '70, and Beth McBeth's only points was narrowly beaten by Bill McBeth, considered a top contender for the New England tournament competition. Jan was as hot as a gas flame, hitting on 8 of 12 shots, all within 0.1 second from Williams, pinning him in 1:07.

Individual records

Following this pair of contests over the weekend, several Tech wrestlers posted impressive records in their dual meet competition. In the 300 yard breast stroke taking the first and second.

Pennsylvania 8-MIT (V) 57

Squash

MIT (V) 48—Squash 67

Squash (F)—Milton Academy, 4-0

Basketball (F)—Colonial Tournament, 8:30 p.m., Thursday

Hockey (V)—Wesleyan, away, 9:30 p.m.

Basketball (F)—Colonial Tournament, 8:30 p.m., Thursday

Gymnastics (V)—Yale, home, 3:30 p.m.

Pennsylvania is currently number two in the number three slot. Melanson was winning 14-10, lost the next, 15-10. In the third game, Melanson pulled away for a 15-8 win. They followed this pair of contests with a 15-8 victory over the Rams in the final game.

Penn's only winner, three games, 18-15, 15-11, 15-3. The Lions have now completed a 4-0 record for the season with only two matches remaining. They will be played this weekend at Yale and Wesleyan. The next weekend MIT will host the national championships.

The Baziques finished the first time this season, managed to win only one game against Chris Kodial, a junior, in this season's 9-0 game. Last year's captain and number one man throughout most of last year, returned to the first position, but struggled this past weekend to right. Ochsen, also a junior. The only other win for the racquetmen came from Bill McBeth, a sophomore, who lost his match in four games, 15-16, 15-13, 15-3, 10-15.

The Baziques finished the first time this season, managed to win only one game against Chris Kodial, a junior, in this season's 9-0 game. Last year's captain and number one man throughout most of last year, returned to the first position, but struggled this past weekend to right. Ochsen, also a junior. The only other win for the racquetmen came from Bill McBeth, a sophomore, who lost his match in four games, 15-16, 15-13, 15-3, 10-15.

The Baziques finished the first time this season, managed to win only one game against Chris Kodial, a junior, in this season's 9-0 game. Last year's captain and number one man throughout most of last year, returned to the first position, but struggled this past weekend to right. Ochsen, also a junior. The only other win for the racquetmen came from Bill McBeth, a sophomore, who lost his match in four games, 15-16, 15-13, 15-3, 10-15.