I don't have two years experience. I have one year twice.

Some people get experience in a job. Other people get older. There's a big difference. And it all depends on where you work, and with whom you work. You can start some place that has all the proper systems engineering credentials — significant contracts, modern physical plant, and the usual fringe benefits — and find yourself a couple of years later, just a couple of years behind.

Or, you can come to a place like MITRE and get experience. And grow. We have the credentials, of course. (We happen to think they're the best.) But we have something more. An attitude. We want you to get the best systems experience in the business. We want you to share what we know with you, to want you to absorb it as fast as you can. The quicker you grasp things, the quicker things get done.
