The MIT varsity baseball team won three of five games on its annual southern trip during the week ending March 26. The team had an overall record of 14-4 after six games. The Techmen played well against South Carolina and North Carolina, but lost two games against North Carolina and South Carolina. The Techmen's season opener with the University of Pennsylvania was postponed due to rain.

Techmen run in Florida, Wilson takes third place

Amid the flood of Tech students touring the Florida beaches last week, five members of the MIT varsity tennis team also visited the Sunshine State. Besides soaking up the sun at the more obvious localities, the team also played in the Atlanta Regionals, a tournament that ran from March 23-25.

The varsity tennis team returned from its Southern trip earlier this month, having achieved a number of accomplishments over the past two weekends. The team defeated South Carolina 6-1 at UNC and South Carolina 6-3 at the University of Georgia. These victories earned the team a third place finish in the Atlanta Regionals, which was hosted by Emory University.

Writers honor Dave Janson as NE Player of the Year

Dave Janson '68 was named to the New England College Division Player of the Year list for the year. This is the second time in his career that Janson has been honored for his outstanding performance on the court. In 1967, Janson was selected as the New England Division Player of the Year.

Dave Janson '68 will be inducted into the MIT Hall of Fame on May 1st. This will be his second induction, as he was already enshrined in 1970 for his achievements as a basketball player.

Andrea gets fourth in National tourney
