Star Trek lives

As we noted earlier this year, there was a recent protest at Caltech over the threatened cancellation of "Star Trek" in the coming season. Public opinion seems to have prevailed, for NBC announced Tuesday that the program would be retained. This disclosure should ease the worries of many at MIT, as well as at Caltech, who feared the loss of their regular Friday evening diversion.

University of North Carolina officials recently received 45 containers full of Benedectine, Dessertine, and other pop pills, totalling over one million. Said the Daily Tar Heel "That is enough to get the entire University through exams with enough left over to cover the entire football field.

And you still call us a phone company?

We really don't mind.

After all, it wasn't that long ago that we were just in the telephone business. But now, because we're involved in so much more, we need bright college graduates with practically any kind of degree, whether it's in Engineering or Commerce.

Ask your placement director about us. The misunderstood phone company at 730 3rd Avenue, N.Y. 10017.
