Thindrizzles edge BU, Tufts showing excellent depth

By Jon Steele

The tennis team was put down 7-0 by the Trinity team in Hartford, Monday, third in the New England court. The record now stands at 9-7 with a strong Brown team tomorrow. The Techmen lost at home.

By Dennis Deneroff

The Techmen lost their three point lead at Northeastern but came back twice for

Wright, 6-2, 7-5, Carl Weissgerber in the New Englands this week.

The loss could have been a stronger one, but then tired at the end and succumbed to Trinity's Chuck Metcalfe '69 started poorly by setting, but on the basis of his competitive record now stands at 9-7 with 7-2 by the Trinity team in Hartwell.

The tennis team was put down 7-0 by the Trinity team in Hartford, Monday, third in the New England court. The record now stands at 9-7 with a strong Brown team tomorrow. The Techmen lost at home.

By Dennis Deneroff

The Techmen lost their three point lead at Northeastern but came back twice for a tally in the bottom of the seventh. The deciding run came in the bottom of the seventh. The deciding run came.

Boston College Beat Tufts, 5-4, Monday.

The Engineer nine, refusing to give up, came back twice for a tally in the bottom of the seventh. The deciding run came in the bottom of the seventh. The deciding run came.

Boston College Beat Tufts, 5-4, Monday.

The Engineer nine, refusing to give up, came back twice for a tally in the bottom of the seventh. The deciding run came in the bottom of the seventh. The deciding run came.

Boston College Beat Tufts, 5-4, Monday.

The Engineer nine, refusing to give up, came back twice for a tally in the bottom of the seventh. The deciding run came in the bottom of the seventh. The deciding run came.

Boston College Beat Tufts, 5-4, Monday.

The Engineer nine, refusing to give up, came back twice for a tally in the bottom of the seventh. The deciding run came in the bottom of the seventh. The deciding run came.

Boston College Beat Tufts, 5-4, Monday.

The Engineer nine, refusing to give up, came back twice for a tally in the bottom of the seventh. The deciding run came in the bottom of the seventh. The deciding run came.

Boston College Beat Tufts, 5-4, Monday.

The Engineer nine, refusing to give up, came back twice for a tally in the bottom of the seventh. The deciding run came in the bottom of the seventh. The deciding run came.